

27 DIE, 66 HURT IN FRENCH AIR RAID

PROSPERITY ERA NOW LAUNCHED FOR AMERICA. IS OPINION OF VISEL

That many claims recently made to the effect that the United States has already started on one of the most prosperous eras in its history are founded on facts is the assertion made by Mayor A. J. Visel who has just returned from a business trip to New York City.

In the country's big metropolis Mayor Visel saw much that convinced him beyond all doubt that an unequalled wave of prosperity has begun to sweep over the United States. Among the many things which go to prove this is the fact that two of the large lunch counters, run by the Associated Charities of New York City, have recently suspended operations. At these counters meals are served at cost, or less. Large numbers of unemployed have gone to work and on account of this the charity controlled eating houses are gradually being closed down.

Money Cheap
"One of the things that struck me during the ten days I was in New York was the fact that money is very cheap," said Mayor Visel. "Money can be obtained at very low interest. This is caused by the fact that, for the present, at least, no new industries are being started. Times are dull, it must be admitted, but in spite of this there is an ever-increasing optimism to be noted among the various corporations and commercial interests. "The feeling among business men in the East is that the country is going to see, in the next sixty months, one of the most tremendously prosperous periods in the history of the nation."

"Europe is already practically out of foodstuffs. When the seas are opened once more and the great war over, there will be an unprecedented demand for anything we have to sell."

Gotham's Expenses
"I was given an insight into what it costs to run New York City. A friend of mine, who is credit man for a $20,000,000 milling concern, told me that it cost the metropolis $193,000,000 to conduct the business of the city for one year."

"At a rough estimate, and taking New York's population as being 4,000,000, this means that New York has a per capita tax of about $47. Figuring that Santa Ana has a population of 15,000, we would have about $600,000 to spend per annum, provided we had the same tax rate here."

"This credit man I refer to tells me that in two years time the population of New York City has fallen off a half million. I asked him where this number of people had gone to. He said that many of them had gone back to Europe and many of them to the Middle West and West. This decrease in population, according to my friend, is attributable directly to the hard times that have prevailed."

Good Times Ahead, Says Rev. J. A. Stevenson

Numerically and financially the past year has been the most successful ever known in the history of the Presbyterian Church in this country, according to Rev. J. A. Stevenson, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, this city, who has just returned from the Grand Assembly of the Church held in Rochester, N. Y. Rev. Stevenson went to the assembly as a delegate from the Presbytery of Los Angeles.

"All the reports made at the assembly were most encouraging," said Rev. Stevenson today. "The fact that financially the year just past has been the most successful in the history of the church is a very encouraging thing."

HAILSTONES BIG AS BASEBALLS KILL ELEVEN IN NEBRASKA GALE

HASTINGS, Neb., June 19.—A "tornado" gale, bearing with it a hailstorm, is reported to have killed eleven persons at Holdredge, Wilcox and Superior. Hailstones bigger than baseballs fell for an hour, smashing in many roofs.

Heavy devastation to crops is reported from many sections.

KANSAS CITY, June 19.—Serious floods threaten Kansas. The weather bureau has issued warnings that inundations, the worst in seven years, are imminent. The Kaw has risen eight feet at Topeka. Rain is still falling in the Kaw, Republic and Blue River valleys.

FIRST PHOTOGRAPH of British heroine who was decorated recently by King Albert with the Order of Leopold for conspicuous bravery in hospital service while under fire.

All England is ringing with the name of Miss Muriel Thompson, British nurse with the Belgian soldiers, who has just been decorated by King Albert with the order of Leopold. She went forth into the trenches under the fire of the German guns and carried out the wounded Belgians. Bullets did not frighten her. This photograph shows her in her field costume.

MEXICANS PLAN PEACE CONFAB WITH WILSON AT CAPITAL

EL PASO, June 19.—Mexican Foreign Minister Diaz Lombardo, General Anguiano and other prominent Mexicans are en route here. They expect to start for Washington next week to negotiate a Mexican peace conference.

The local Villalita agency reports that Obregon's Carranzistas have evacuated Leon, and retreated southward.

CARRANZA REPORTED SEEKING REFUGE FROM ENEMIES
WASHINGTON, June 19.—There is a rumor current here today that Gen. Carranza is seeking refuge from malcontents and that he has removed his headquarters from Vera Cruz to San Juan de Ulloa, an island in Vera Cruz harbor which is practically isolated.

Gen. Carranza recently accepted the resignation of four of his cabinet ministers.

AMERICAN IS SLAIN BY MEXICAN DRUNKS

WASHINGTON, June 19.—Mexicans have killed Gilbert Teahli, an American mine superintendent in San Luis Potosi, State Department advises today report. Teahli attempted to act as peacemaker in a drunken Mexican brawl. Three arrests have been made.

NOW, DONCHER KNOW, THIS COULDN'T BE!

SAN FRANCISCO, June 19.—A bandit with an English accent and carrying a cane attacked Albert Ferguson, clerk of the Ferguson hotel. The clerk yelled help. The swell thug remonstrated and pounded Ferguson's head with the cane and fled.

POWER BOAT RACES
NEW YORK, June 19.—The New York Motor Boat Club's power boat race up the Hudson river to Albany and return today is the first of the four races arranged between that club, the N. Y. A. C.

COURT ADJOURNS IN HURRY AS WITNESS HUGS, KISSES JUDGE

SAN FRANCISCO, June 19.—Court was precipitately adjourned in Superior Judge Creighton's court when a fair witness pleased by one of his honor's rulings, in the attempt of members of the second Spiritualist Church to oust as legal secretary Bert Stout, rushed to the bench embraced his honor, in a most hearty manner and planted a resounding kiss on his cheek.

Despite the breach of decorum, Judge Creighton did not appear displeased, but in haste dismissed the witness and escaped to his chambers.

BELIEF GROWS LEO FRANK MUST HANG

ATLANTA, June 19.—It is today believed Governor Slayton intends to rule that Leo Frank must hang. The Governor said he would not announce his decision until Monday or Tuesday.

Frank is scheduled to hang Tuesday at noon. It is believed the Governor is delaying the announcement, believing it merciful to permit Frank to have hope until the last.

BANDITS ROBBED BY VICTIM OF CASH TAKEN FROM HIM

SAN FRANCISCO, June 19.—"He laughs best who laughs last." There are two bandits, identity unknown, at large in San Francisco today who will testify to the truth of this homely bit of philosophy.

The two robbers entered the room of Harry Murphy in a downtown hotel at an early hour this morning and at the point of revolvers took $90 from Murphy and departed.

Murphy is Irish and could not see the joke. He got a gun, jumped out of a second-story window, ran around to the door and encountered the bandits as they left by the door.

Shoving his revolver into their faces he demanded that they hand over the money. They did.

Back in his room Murphy figured up assets and liabilities and discovered he was richer by $11.

WAR NURSE TO TELL OF TYPHUS RAVAGES
SAN FRANCISCO, June 19.—Miss Mathilde Krueger, a recovered typhus victim, will arrive tomorrow bringing terrifying tales of the ravages of the dread disease in Serbia.

She will address the American Nurses Association, the California State Nurses Association and the National organization for public health.

GREAT WARSHIP ARIZONA TAKES MAIDEN DIP IN OCEAN

Uncle Sam today launched another of his great battleships, a ship the equal of anything in the world, except perhaps the Queen Elizabeth, Britain's new battleship, which has been bombarding the forts of the Dardanelles, and he four sister ships being launched in Great Britain. The Arizona is a sister ship of the Pennsylvania, which is now in the water. Miss Esther Ross of Prescott, Ariz., selected by Governor Hunt for the honor, was the sponsor of the great dreadnaught.

The most interesting thing about the Arizona, except her fighting ability, is the fact that she is the work of a government navy yard, the New York navy yard, where the Connecticut, the Florida, and the New York were built.

Thirty-ninth Battleship
The great rudder of the battleship, here shown, is more than twenty feet in height and considerably over that in length. The vessel from the bottom of the rudder to the decks, where the small figures of the workmen may be seen, is fifty feet in depth.

The Arizona is the thirty-ninth battleship built for the American navy since 1892. Compared to the first American battleship, the Indiana, launched in 1893, the Arizona will be nearly twice as long, half again as wide and of three times as great displacement. Against the Indiana's four 13-inch guns and eight 8-inch, the Arizona will carry twelve 14-inch and twenty-two 5-inch rifles, the same armament as her sister ship, the Pennsylvania, recently launched at Newport News.

Fifteen-Mile Gun Range
In addition to the great size of the new ship's main battery, the guns are of 45-calibre as against the 35-calibre of the Indiana's 13-inch guns, identical with those aboard the famous old Oregon, which played their part in the battle of Santiago. With the four-teens of the Arizona in her turrets, the Oregon could have halted any one of the fleeing Spanish ships almost without leaving her station. The Arizona's guns have a range, even at the low elevation of American navy mountings, of fifteen miles or more, against eight or nine miles for the old thirteens.

Million Total Loss
As she looks in the water immediately after the launching, the ship will have cost the government $7,425,000. An even greater sum will go for her guns and armor and other equipment, and when she goes into commission her cost to the country will have reached the huge total of $11,000,000 or more.

Miss Ross is "A Girl from the Hills of Arizona." She is a typical representative of Arizona's younger generation, which is fast supplanting the pioneer women of the past two generations. Miss Ross, who has just passed seventeen, is of medium stature, being five feet three inches in height. She is of a decidedly petite type, with blue eyes, light brown hair and vivacious manners. She has an older brother, who is at present a midshipman at the Naval Academy at Annapolis.

WAR NURSE TO TELL OF TYPHUS RAVAGES

SAN FRANCISCO, June 19.—Miss Mathilde Krueger, a recovered typhus victim, will arrive tomorrow bringing terrifying tales of the ravages of the dread disease in Serbia.

She will address the American Nurses Association, the California State Nurses Association and the National organization for public health.

War nurses just returned from the battlefields will describe the Red Cross work.

CALIFORNIA MEDICAL RESERVES FACE CALL

SACRAMENTO, June 19.—All members of the United States Army Medical Reserve Corps today received a circular letter from the War Department asking them to notify the department whether "in view of possible contingencies, they are ready to enter active service."

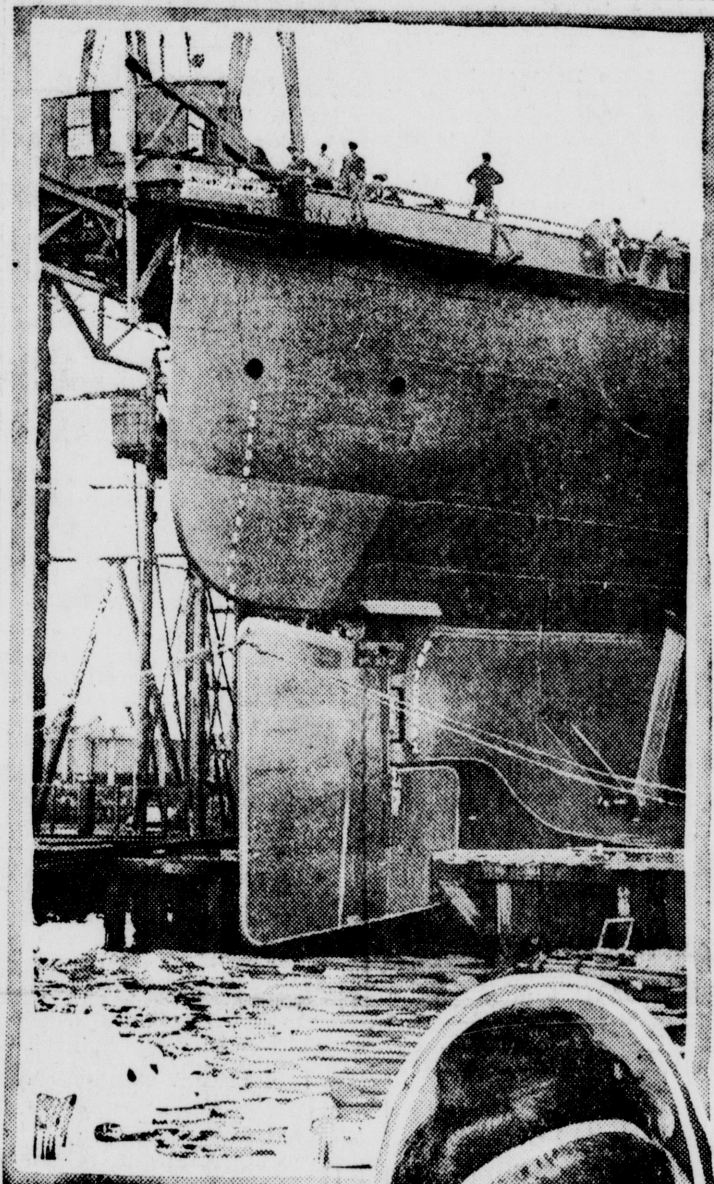

This is considered significant. The only similar notice previously received was when America sent troops to Mexico last year.

STANFORD OARSMEN PRACTICE IN EARNEST

POUGHKEEPSIE, June 19.—The Stanford crew commenced practice this morning in earnest for the big intercollegiate regatta.

The day opened with a four-mile sprint up the river. Later for half an hour the crew drilled in quick starts. The big Californians appear confident and their powerful stroke excited much favorable comment.

HERE is a photograph showing the rudder portion of the Arizona, the latest and greatest of America's fighting machines, launched today. The insert is Miss Esther Ross of Prescott, Arizona, who was selected as sponsor for the great vessel.

NEAR DEATH IN TIDE-RIP, TWO SANTA ANAS RESCUED

Caught in a current while bathing in the surf at Balboa yesterday afternoon, Alfred C. Catland and his brother, Raymond A. Catland, both of 409 Wellington Avenue, this city escaped drowning.

With the two Catlands were Roy Carver, of this city, and Tobe Oertly, of Garden Grove. The four boys were diving into the breakers and swimming. Suddenly the two Catlands began calling for help. Thinking that the calls were meant merely as a joke, Oertly and Carver gave no heed for several moments.

Really in Danger
It soon developed, however, that the two Catlands were in danger of being carried out to sea. Oertly swam to the side of Alfred Catland and brought him to the shore. Raymond Catland was aided by Carver.

Had it not been for the timely action of Carver and Oertly it is quite likely that the Catlands would have drowned. Alfred Catland was practically unconscious when brought to shore. Several moments were required to revive him.

Treacherous Point
The near tragedy occurred at a point about 300 yards south of the Balboa pier. The Catlands claim that there are several treacherous holes near the shore at the point where the incident occurred and that there is a strong current running at times.

Alfred Catland is one of this year's graduates of the Santa Ana Polytechnic High School and his brother, Raymond, graduated this year from Throop Polytechnic Institute.

EMMA GOLDMAN TO DEFY SAN DIEGO COPS

LOS ANGELES, June 19.—Emma Goldman, the "woman anarchist," announced today that she would leave tonight for San Diego, planning to deliver a lecture tomorrow.

Emma Goldman has twice been run out of San Diego by the police, but says this time she will stay.

MOTORCYCLISTS RUN
INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., June 19.—The 18-hour Southern Indiana endurance run of the Indianapolis Motorcycle Club starts today. It will finish on Sunday, June 20.

MISSOURIAN SAYS WILSON WILL RUN; WILL BE NOMINATED

PORTLAND, June 19.—Congressman Joshua Alexander of Missouri today declared President Wilson would surely be a candidate for re-election and would receive the nomination.

"I am from Missouri, Champ Clark's state," said Alexander, "But I am loyal to Woodrow Wilson, and so is Clark."

MILLION DOLLAR RACE TRACK IS PLANNED FOR NEW JUAREZ

SAN FRANCISCO, June 19.—F. N. Thayer, owner of the Juarez race course, together with several other American and Mexican turfmen, is in San Francisco today, en route south to establish what they declare will be the greatest race course in North America.

The proposed site for the track is sixteen miles from San Diego, and just outside of Juarez.

H. A. Houser, a capitalist from Mexico, who is financially interested, says the track will be much larger than the present Juarez track and will cost considerably more than $1,000,000.

Both factions in Mexico, it is said, have granted concessions for the new track.

It is planned to open up a winter meeting Thanksgiving Day.

SCORE AMERICAN LIVES IN PERIL AS AVIATORS HURL BOMBS AT TEUTONS

KARLSRUHE, June 19.—The correspondent of the United Press here learns today from authoritative source that twenty-seven persons were killed and sixty-six wounded in the French air raid of Tuesday.

Twenty-six Americans had narrow escapes.

Mrs. M. Valentine of New York and her two babies, were rendered almost hysterical by terror as bombs exploded in the rear of their residence.

Dr. Joseph Adler of Boston stood within the radius of the exploding bombs, several of which burst within forty feet of him.

Miss Martha Klingman of Ann Arbor, Mich., was awakened by a bomb bursting just outside her bedroom window.

I. Krumdick of Grand Junction, had a harrowing experience as bombs smashed all the windows in his home.

A number of buildings throughout the town were completely demolished and several bad fires were started.

The town is still in a state of panic as a result of the raid.

A big scare was caused last night when two German aeroplanes soared over the town. Steam siren and bells sounded a warning and the inhabitants fled into the cellars.

The American colony here joined in the mourning and in the funeral services over the victims of the air raid.

DELAYED CABLE SAYS ALLIES LOSING IN DARDANELLES

(NOTE—The following was telegraphed from Constantinople June 1 via Berlin, and The Hague for cabling, but never reached the New York office of the United Press. The British censor evidently halted the message. This duplicate was received by mail.)

CONSTANTINOPLE, June 1.—The allies' Dardanelles attacks face insurmountable obstacles.

Well informed military authorities agree that unless some unexpected factor appears the attempt to force this gateway to Constantinople is doomed to defeat.

The Turks have perfected a secret system of moveable batteries which the British are unable to locate, and which permits of the defenders maneuvering at will.

The tremendous bombardment of the allies has so far done little real damage. The biggest shells seldom kill more than two persons. The main effect of these huge shells seems to be to dig holes in which the Turks are enabled to hide in safety until the attack comes to an end.

The bombardments by the allies preceding attacks by infantry are usually ineffective.

Gallipoli peninsula bristles with nearly 1000 guns of the largest type known to war. Turkish recruits are arriving daily and the supply of men seems inexhaustible.

Naval authorities agree that the Turkish submarines alone can easily prevent the allied fleet from passing the Bosphorus and Dardanelles.

RUSSIANS ADMIT DEFEAT IN GALICIAN BATTLES

PETROGRAD, June 19.—The war office today admits the truth of reports of Russian Galician defeat.

The Russian right wing has retreated eight miles beyond the frontier.

Unofficial advice indicates that the Russians are making a last stand on the Grodek line, where a great battle is developing.

Lemberg is the German objective.

ITALIANS REPORT SUCCESS ON LAND, SEA AND IN AIR

ROME, June 19.—The Austrian fleet has been bombed Tagliamento in an attempt to fire the Monopoli naphtha reservoir, but failed.

An Italian dirigible has bombed an Austrian munition storehouse at Trieste, with fair success.

Italian artillery yesterday silenced Malborget fortress, the magazines of which were exploded.

The battle at Goritz is growing in ferocity, with the Austrians vainly attacking the Italian trenches.

FRENCH CLAIM PROGRESS IN OFFENSIVE MOVEMENT

PARIS, June 19.—The British and Belgian forces have joined the general French offensive movement, though the result is still in doubt.

East of La Basse the British made an attack on the German lines. The Teutons rushed up their heavy guns and poured in a heavy shell fire on the English.

The Belgians are actively on the offensive in the Dixmude region, with the Germans stubbornly resisting.

French "seventy-fives" have silenced several German batteries, destroying the wire entanglements and obliterating the trenches near the Souchy and Allegheny mountain regions.

cz sugar mill. Following up this, the French made a bayonet charge and were met with a counter attack by the Germans, in which the latter lost heavily.

BRITISH DENY GERMAN TANKSHIP STORY

LONDON, June 19.—The admiralty announces that a British warship sank submarine U-29 last March. It denies the Berlin statement that a British tanker rammed the vessel.

GERMAN SUBMARINE SINKS ANOTHER BRITISH BOAT

LONDON, June 19.—A German submarine sank the Hartlepool steamer Dulcia off the east coast. One sailor perished.

FURIOUS ATTACK BEGUN ON RUSSIANS IN NORTH

VIENNA, June 19.—The Austrians have furiously attacked the Russians in their last stand before Lemberg. Gen. von Mackensen's Germans have assaulted the Slavs in the Grodek region, fifteen miles from Lemberg. Victory is not yet decided.

PEACE IN MEXICO IN 2 MONTHS, PREDICTED

DALLAS, June 19.—Doctor M. H. Carrick, a sanitary expert, has been engaged by the Carranza and Villa factions to clean up Mexico. He declared Mexican peace is probable within two months without intervention.

The warring factions supplied a cash guarantee that Carrick would be assisted in his medical relief work. He believes Carranza and Villa already have reached a secret agreement.

158 BRITISH VESSELS FALL PREY TO SUBMARINES

LONDON, June 19.—The Admiralty today announces that eighty-two British merchantmen have been sunk since German submarine began, also seventy-six fishing vessels. The total arrivals and sailings from British ports since the war zone was established has been 24,442.

GERMAN MILITARISTS ARE OPPOSING CONCESSIONS

WASHINGTON, June 19.—German militarists are determined to prevent diplomats from making concessions to America.

This information has reached Washington through official sources.

The militarists oppose any concessions, believing it will give a mistaken impression that Germany fears eventual defeat.

The militarists admit that Americans are entitled to protection and believe the government should take the steps Bryan suggested to prevent non-combatants using belligerent munition-carrying ships.

BRITISH RECRUITING MEN IN SAN FRANCISCO, CLAIM

SAN FRANCISCO, June 19.—The British are operating a recruiting office here according to a charge made by Franz Bopp, German Consul. The federal authorities have ordered a sweeping investigation. Bopp says he employed private detectives in an endeavor to get evidence. Today he telegraphed a lengthy report to Washington.

GERMANS ADMIT SUBMARINE SUNK BY BRITISH SHIP

BERLIN, June 19.—The admiralty today in a statement describing the destruction of the German submarine U-29, says the vessel was rammed and sunk by a British tank ship flying the Swedish flag.

The loss of the submarine had been admitted in a previous statement.

The admiralty claims the politeness of Lieutenant Otto Weddeng, commander of the U-29, caused the destruction of the submarine.

The British call Weddeng the "Polite Pirate."

U-29 ordered the tanker to halt and show her papers. The British took advantage of the delay and rammed and sunk the submarine.

Berlin newspapers declare the incident proves the British abuse of neutral flags.

One says "The illegal attitude of British trade ships has compelled our submarines to consider their own safety first and to sink such vessels without warning. A change in our submarine warfare is impossible unless Britain changes her uncivilized methods."

Immigration Post L. A. Harbor

United States Commissioner General of Immigration A. Caminetti, who visited Los Angeles Harbor this week, indicated that he would ask the government set aside at least ten acres on Dead Man's Island for a permanent detention station for immigrants who will come to Southern California in the future.

TAKE TURNS GIVING EVENING'S PROGRAM

BOLSA, June 19.—The Bolsa Literary Society met last Thursday evening with a large crowd in attendance. It was the girls' evening to entertain and a splendid program was rendered. After the program, ice cream and wafers were sold. The next meeting will be Thursday evening, June 24, when the boys will do the entertaining.

Miss Ethel Heil is spending a couple of weeks at Tuslin.

Earl Patterson is quite sick with typhoid pneumonia.

Miss Valentine Heil and Miss Melia Ross spent last Saturday at Los Angeles.

Mrs. Sarah Gardner, who has been visiting at the home of her son, E. A. Gardner, left Saturday for Buena Park where she will visit her daughter.

Miss Levena Ross spent several days this week visiting at Santa Ana. Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Gardner will entertain their friends Saturday evening with a dancing party.

The Misses Mary, Helen and Christine Shiffer of Los Angeles spent Sunday with their parents at Bolca.

FOUR LOCAL ALUMNI NOW POMONA GRADS

Four members of the graduating class at Pomona College this year are alumni of Santa Ana High School. All have taken a prominent part in college activities during the past four years.

Miss Edna Beatty has been active in literary work at Pomona, and received recognition by the national honor society in scholarship when she was awarded the Phi Beta Kappa key in her junior year.

Miss Wilma Andrews returned to Santa Ana immediately after the completion of commencement exercises. Miss Andrews holds the office of secretary in the senior class.

Miss Alice Clausen, who graduated from the local high school in the class of '11, is living in Los Angeles and will attend normal there next year. Miss Clausen has been engaged in musical work during her stay at Claremont as a member of the Glee Club, the choir and the Choral Union.

Walter S. Reeves, president of the senior class and of the men's dormitory organization, has continued his football, started in high school, through three years of varsity service. For the last two years he has been the unanimous choice of critics for All-California end. Reeves has taken a scientific course and will spend next year as assistant in the Shaw School of Botany at St. Louis.

This office of president of the graduating class was held last year by Edwin McFadden, and the president-elect for next year is Emmett Raitt. Both of these men are from this city.

WITHOUT FIRE FUMES OF GASOLINE ON A HOT AUTO ENGINE GET FIRE

Handful of Dirt Quickly and Liberally Applied Save Machine From Damage

That it does not take fire to set gasoline ablaze is testimony that W. E. Ward of Santa Ana is willing to give.

Ward has a burned right hand to offer as an exhibit. His face also is slightly scorched, and further evidence might be secured from an examination of Ward's Cole automobile.

Dirt thrown in quantities by half a dozen persons willing hands is probably all that saved the Cole from being burned into scrap iron. As it was the machine got by with little damage.

Ward with his wife, two daughters and four friends were in the Cole on a trip to the foothills east of El Toro. For five miles the machine had not been acting right. It would run all right for a time, then go to bucking. Finally Ward discovered that the gasoline feed pipe was choked up.

Ward backed his machine into the shade of a sycamore tree, and started in to remedy the difficulty. The tank from an auxiliary tank that holds about a quart of gasoline was disconnected, and that gasoline leaked out. The engine of the machine was hot. The engine was not running. No matches were struck.

Suddenly the engine burst into flame. Ward is certain that there was no chance for the fire to have started except through spontaneous combustion.

Ward was leaning over the engine when the flames started. The back of his right hand was severely burned, and he was otherwise slightly scorched.

One little girl in the machine jumped out and ran up the side of the hill as hard as she could go.

The others began throwing double handfuls of dirt on to the engine, and in a few seconds the fire was put out.

HEAVY HAY BALER NOT ENOUGH TO BREAK LEG

While sitting unsteadily on the seat of a hay baler that he was moving from China to the hills east of Orange, Gumaro Pedrosa of Chino lost his balance and fell. The two-ton baler passed over one of the man's legs.

Not a bone in the man's leg was broken. He did suffer a wrenched knee and sprained ankle, but evidently it takes more than a two-ton baler, steel shod, to break bones for Pedrosa. Pedrosa had been drinking.

MUSIC HATH CHARMS TO SOOTHE SAVAGE; ALSO TO CURE ILLS

SAN FRANCISCO, June 19.—"B natural" is a sure cure and certain to tone you up, according to Miss Ethel Johnson of San Francisco, who is planning a series of musical cures for her ailing friends. They are to be used on the modern girl, disobedient youngsters or whoever shows cause for treatment. She also advocates the cure of spiritual ills by music. She ought to know because she says she has "tried it on her piano."

If her "cure" is a success small brother will never again balk when called on to wipe the dishes because the new "cure" is one that never fails where the ill has been diagnosed as plain, common laziness. If there is trouble in the house turn on the phonograph. If the servant gives notice and quits just play "How Can I Live Without You?" Have your ailments diagnosed and set to music, says Miss Johnson.

CONVICT'S THRILLER PLAYED BY CONVICTS

AUBURN, June 19.—"The Higher Judge," an original drama by William H. Pinar, a convict, had its first performance before a capacity house in Auburn Prison chapel. It was acted by the convicts. The plot tells of a reformed convict who, while employed by a millionaire, wins the hand of his daughter.

To prevent the match the father "framed up" a grand larceny charge against the former Mutual Welfare League, bribes a judge and district attorney and buys the defendant's attorney with $10,000 to "throw" his client.

"Tom Brown," the hero, is drawn to portray Thomas Mott Osborne, warden of Sing Sing.

YOUR COUGH CAN BE STOPPED

Using care to avoid draughts, exposure, sudden changes, and taking a treatment of Dr. King's New Discovery, will positively relieve, and in time will surely rid you, of your Cough. The first dose soothes the irritation, checks your Cough, which stops in a short time. Dr. King's New Discovery has been used successfully for 45 years and is guaranteed to cure you. Money back if it fails. Get a bottle from your Druggist. It costs only a little and will help you so much.

Fire Fighting Force IS TO BE REDUCED

Anaheim Plain Dealer: Reorganization of Anaheim's fire department will be effected at its annual meeting to be held Wednesday night, July 7. To meet the requirement of a salary allowance recently made by the City Trustees, the department at its annual meeting will reduce its membership from 20 to 12 members. Officers for the ensuing year will also be chosen.

For several years the membership of the department has been an even score, and for their services each member was paid $2 for every fire alarm responded to. In addition $12 was paid to the department monthly, and $50 to the fire chief annually.

Under the new order the membership will be reduced to twelve and each will be paid $5 per month. The driver of the fire motor truck, which is expected to arrive here any day from the factory, will receive $75 per month.

GHASTLY INSCRIPTION FOUND ON OLD CANE

Anaheim Plain Dealer—In the course of tearing down the old Commercial hotel Tuesday, Art Moore, the contractor discovered a cane hidden in the walls of the old structure. The cane is about thirty inches in length and weighs about five pounds. The handle is made of woven rawhide. A card tied to the cane bears the inscription: "Jany., 1897. This cane was used to kill Mr. Rasin in Evenston, Wyo. He was a million Air cattle king."

DEAF, DUMB, BLIND, BUT SHE TESTIFIES

NEW YORK, June 19.—Miss Helen McGee of 155 Douglass street, Brooklyn, who has become blind, speechless, deaf in her right ear and paralyzed on the right side since the accident, has sued before Supreme Court Justice Kelly in Brooklyn for $50,000 damages from the Manhattan Bridge Three-Cent Line for injuries she received December 23, when a car jumped the track at the Brooklyn side.

Miss McGee may win her suit solely on her ability to write with her left hand, acquired since she was hurt. At the trial her attorney, John L. Graham, shouted questions in her left ear and she wrote the answers, which were then read to the jury.

Miss McGee wrote that the car turned completely over and at first she believed herself uninjured. Later she had pains in the right side of her head. Soon her speech left her. She wrote and the right side of her body became paralyzed.

The company's lawyer, Almet Reed Latson, moved to dismiss the suit, saying the fact that the car had left the track did not necessarily prove the company guilty of negligence. Justice Kelly denied the motion.

LOCK ME UP, I HAD TO STEAL, SAYS BOY

NEW YORK, June 19.—Julius Silverstein, 11, of No. 57 Delmonico Place, walked into the Brooklyn Children's Court and said to Probation Officer Harry Greenberg:

"Lock me up! I can't keep from stealing. I've tried hard, but I can't. Mamma just gave me 50 cents for lunch, of which I was to have 15 cents and I swiped it all."

Greenberg recognized in Silverstein a lad who was convicted five months ago of burglary. He took him before Justice Wilkin.

"Oh, I know him. Right about face, forward, march!" said the court when Silverstein walked up to the bar. And he committed him to the Jewish Protective.

WESTMINSTER'S NEWS BUDGET

WESTMINSTER, June 19.—A very interesting meeting of the local chamber of commerce was held at the school house auditorium on Tuesday evening. President W. Dean Johnston presided. A program was given as follows: A vocal solo by Clifford Johnston of Santa Ana; a paper by James McFadden, one of the first settlers, on the "Past of Westminster," beginning at the time when the land was bought and extending to the present time, and it was a very interesting talk. The "Present" was ably represented by Willis Warner, who showed the difference in many ways over the past, while in the past the country was given over to cattle pasture, it now grew immense crops of beets, spoke of the good roads, the new school house, new buildings and many other improvements.

Rev. W. J. Waltz spoke on the "Future." This was in a prophetic strain, and cited what could be done in the next few years, by energetic action. He told how the town and its prospects looked from a stranger's point of view. A piano solo by Mrs. Orel Hare and a vocal solo by Clifford Johnston, was followed by refreshments of ice cream and cake. All present voted thanks to the chamber for a very pleasant evening.

ENLARGE YOUR COOKING POSSIBILITIES

By a Little Study on the Manifold Uses of Cornstarch

If cornstarch could be used for only one purpose—the making of a good pastry flour (by simply mixing with the regular bread flour in the right proportion)—it would be an invaluable aid to every housewife. However, this is only one of hundreds of ways in which cornstarch can be used to advantage by the efficient cook. In fact, no one can realize all the possibilities of good cooking without a thorough knowledge of this delicious and all-important food product.

Many kinds of bread, pastries, griddle cakes, waffles, fritters, cookies, icings, puddings, ice cream and dozens of other desserts will be made much more delicious by the use of cornstarch.

But in order to obtain the best results it is essential that the best quality of cornstarch be used. Ordinary cornstarch cannot be depended upon for the results you desire.

Correspondence with housekeepers in all parts of the country has developed the fact that those who have the most success with cornstarch recipes, invariably use the famous Kingsford's brand. Kingsford's Cornstarch can be obtained at all modern grocers.

Insist upon Kingsford's and ask your grocer for a copy of the little Kingsford's cook book containing hundreds of valuable recipes—many of which were contributed by eminent culinary experts in all parts of the country.

KERN COUNTY CHAIRMAN ON BRIEF VISIT HERE

Yesterday H. A. Jastro, chairman of the Board of Supervisors of Kern county, visited the Orange county court house and made himself acquainted with some of the officials. Jastro is spending the summer at Long Beach, and motored here on a paved road all the way.

"Kern county is getting ready to build a lot of paved roads," said he. "We have voted $2,500,000, which is no load to a county that is assessed at $2,500,000."

He said that newspaper reports of the value of the lands concerning which the United States supreme court recently gave a decision adverse to the S. P. was greatly exaggerated.

"They speak of millions with as much ease as one would play with marbles," said he. "As a matter of fact, most of those lands are nothing but prospective oil lands."

MANY PEOPLE SUFFERING FROM ANTS

Thousands of People Welcome This Simple Method of Relief

Certain pests are often confined by conditions to certain localities, but ants can be found most everywhere. Ants not only are an annoyance, but they are dangerous as well—spreading disease germs in the same manner as flies and mosquitoes. Nothing tries the patience of the good housewife any more than to find them in the sugar and the jam, and over-running the entire pantry.

There is no need of putting up with this annoyance any longer, however, for a very simple remedy is now available. It is known as Kellogg's Ant-Caste and can be obtained at all modern druggists. This paste seems to have almost supernatural powers over ants. Not only will it drive every ant out of a house, but will prevent their ever getting a foothold in your place again.

Try a package today—the results will be a revelation.

CUT PRICE OF BREAD

Orange News: The price of local bread took a drop approximately 20 per cent when local bakers announced a return to the price of three 10-cent loaves for 25 cents, instead of 10 cents straight.

"The cause of the reduction is a drop in the price of flour which usually comes down for a time just before the harvesting of the new wheat crop," said H. E. Perkins, proprietor of the Perkins bakery, in discussing the situation recently.

"We feel," said Mr. Perkins, "that the reduction in flour should be passed along to the purchaser in the form of cheaper bread. I am also returning to the system of bread tickets, which gives every one an opportunity to take advantage of the reduced rate, for, of course, single loaves are still 10 cents. It is by the purchase of a quantity of tickets, which may be presented when the bread is needed, that the consumer secures the advantage of the reduction. Very few people buy more than one loaf at one time."

GOLDEN RULE IN BUSINESS

The chairman of the board of directors of the United States Steel Company, in a forecast of conditions and methods of trade and industry in the United States in the near future, recently told members of the American Iron and Steel Institute that an "individual or nation that conforms to the Golden Rule will, on the average, obtain the highest pecuniary success." Because he detects growing recognition of this relation between cause and effect in a realm where morals and operating efficiency coincide, Elbert H. Gray is optimistic as he faces the future, as well he may be. For when manufacturers and traders do to others as they would have others do to them, then and then only is it possible for gains to be mutual and hence more widely diffused. Add to this economic gain the moral stability that follows transactions in which justice has been done to producer and consumer alike, and it is easy to infer a resultant sense of security and serenity in vocational affairs that is quite impossible to attain under the competitive system.

To assign major responsibility for the changing ideal of business which makes it possible for an investigator like Miss Ida M. Tarbell, or for an administrator like Mr. Gary, to speak so confidently of the increasing authority of the Golden Rule, may not be altogether easy. Some onlookers would give more credit than does he to the period of illuminating debate and corrective legislation through which the United States has passed during the past twenty-five years. Other interpreters of history no doubt would assign the more beneficent and fraternal conception of business, which is being taught and practised now, to new and finer conceptions of religion and to the greater emphasis which is being put on the wisdom of Jesus as it is set forth in the teaching on the Mount.

Agreement on the cause may not be possible among all persons that are at one as to the effect; but that there is a rising feeling of fraternity and equity in the business world is indisputable, due, in part at least, to growing love of one man for another, worker for worker, and community for community, and also because the economic fatuity of strife, covetousness and envy are coming to be seen more clearly than ever before. The Golden Rule not only works but it rewards.—Christian Science Monitor.

SOIL SURVEYS

The California Agricultural Experiment Station is co-operating this season with the United States Department of Agriculture in soil surveys of detailed areas around Pasadena and San Bernardino and reconnaissance work in the San Diego region. After the work in these areas has been completed the parties will take up detailed surveys in the Russian River Valley and the Honey Lake district and reconnaissance work in the San Joaquin Valley.

Four men from the station and four from the federal department have been assigned to the work. Under the co-operative arrangement adopted for these soil surveys, each pays the salaries and expenses of its own men, while the Federal government bears the expense of inspecting the work and publishing the report for each county.

This report will be accompanied by a large map showing in colors the location of the various kinds of soils with reference to roads, schools, churches, watercourses and other features of the county.

The nature of the soils, their adaptability for various crops and suggestions for the most advantageous use of fertilizers will also be discussed in detail, together with full information on existing agricultural conditions.

Several months will be required to prepare the report and map after the survey has been completed.

Go to school Monday, June 28, Orange County Business College.

HIGH SCHOOL ALUMNI TO BANQUET MONDAY

Arrangements for the annual reunion and banquet of the Santa Ana High School Alumni Association have been completed. There is every reason to believe that there will be a big representation of graduates present. It is proposed to seat those present by classes.

It is stated that any graduate who has neglected to send a reply card to the secretary, Miss Rosamund Norman, stating that the graduate will be present at the banquet, should notify Miss Norman by telephone, 4341, at once. Every graduate of the high school is urged to be present. To those whose addresses were readily obtainable, invitation cards were sent.

FORMER KANSANS KNOW VICTIMS OF TORNADO

Two of the victims of the terrific tornado which swept Kansas and Missouri last Thursday night are well known to many residents of Orange and Santa Ana, among whom are the Richardson, Barnetts, Chapmans and several other families who formerly resided at West Moreland, Kansas.

Charles Morris, president of the Kansas City & Gulf railroad, and his son Guy, who were killed when the West Moreland bridge collapsed under a speeding train, were old friends of the former Kansans, an especially sad feature of this disaster being that Guy Morris had been married scarcely a fortnight.

Much anxiety as to the safety of relatives and other friends in the cyclone district is felt by those who are now fortunate in living in a land where these catastrophes are unknown.

President Wilson's Memorial Day Address

In Arlington National Cemetery, Memorial Day, President Wilson delivered an address in which he carefully avoided any direct reference to problems now facing the United States. When he declared "Greater days lie before this nation than it has ever seen yet; and the solemn consciousness of those who bear office in this time is that they must make their best endeavor to embody in what they do and say the best things in the United States," the applause was not only enthusiastic, but it was prolonged. The President spoke as follows:

President Wilson's Address
I have not come here today to deliver an address, but merely reverently to take part in expressing the sentiment of this impressive day. It is necessarily a day of reminiscence. Reminiscence is not always a profitable exercise. It generally belongs to those, appropriately to those only, who have left the active stage of life and have nothing to think about except the things that are gone and dead. It does not behoove a nation to walk with its eyes over its shoulder. Its business is constantly in the years that lie ahead of it and in the present that challenges it to the display of its power. But there are reminiscences which are stimulating and wholesome, and among these reminiscences are chiefly to be ranked the recollections of days of heroism, days when great nations found it possible to express the best that was in them by the ardent exercise of every power that was in them. That is what gives dignity to a day like this. It is not a day of regret; it is not a day of weakening memory. It is a day of stimulation. But, my friends, these stimulating memories are some times apt to minimize because we do not see the full significance of them.

Birth of the Nation
We are constantly speaking of the great war of which we think to say as a war which saved the union, and it did, indeed, save the union, but it was a war that did a great deal more than that. It created in this country what had never existed before—a national conscience, the saving of the union, but it was a war that was the rebirth of the union. It was the time when America for the first time realized its unity, and saw the vision of its united destiny.

The solemn lesson of these memories for us is not that we must be ready to save the union again, for there are none among us who would not do that. We must see to it that the unity then realized, the vision then seen, is exemplified in our daily lives.

find in us and the things that we do. Because there is no stimulation in any lesson unless it be the stimulation to duty. There is no stimulation when you are if it be merely the pleasure of recollection; it must also be the ardor and courage of hope. Greater days lie before this nation than it has ever seen yet; and the solemn consciousness of those who bear office in this time is that they must make their best endeavor to embody in what they do and say the best things in the United States.

Duty of the Nation
It does not do to talk too much about oneself and I do not think it is wise to talk too much about the United States. I do not want to know what you are going to do tomorrow. The only test I know of that is competent to determine what you are is the test of what you do. Let us not think of our characters; let us think of our duties and of the actions that lie before us. I have always maintained that the man who lives to cultivate his own character will result only in cultivating an intolerable prig, because his object will be himself. Character, my friends, is a by-product. It is produced in the great manufacture of daily life. But it is not easy to determine. Duty for a nation is made up of so many complicated elements that no man can determine it. No group of men without wide common council can possibly determine what the duty of a nation is. It is the strength of a democracy because there daily rises in the great body of a democracy the expression of an untrammelled opinion, which seems to fill the air with its suggestions of duty; and those who stand at the head of affairs have it as their bounden duty to endeavor to express in their actions those things that seem to rise out of the conscience and hope and purpose of the great body of the people themselves.

Lead Nations of World
America, as I have said, was reborn by the struggle of the civil war, but America is reborn every day of her life by the purposes we form, the conceptions we cherish, the hopes that we cherish. We live in our visions. We live in the things we see. We live, and hope abounds in us as we live in the things that mean purpose. Let us go away from this place renewed in our devotion to daily duty and to those ideals which keep a nation young, keep it noble, keep it rich in enterprise and achievement, make it to lead the nations of the world in those things that make for hope and for the benefit of mankind."

at 7:30 p. m. Miss Viva Huffman, a Friends minister from the east, will lead. All are cordially invited.

DELIGHTFUL AFFAIR

Juniors Are Hosts to Seniors At Annual Banquet Given At Elks Hall

One of the highly anticipated affairs which mark commencement week for the seniors was given last evening at Elks hall, elaborately decorated by the juniors, who were hosts to the graduating class at the annual junior-senior banquet.

A group of obliging freshmen served the following appetizing menu, the Dragon catering:

Fruit Cocktail
Veal Pate
Cream Corn
Mashed Potatoes
Frozen Orange Punch, Fruit Ice Cream
Assorted Cakes
Salted Peanuts
A. D. Mints

Keith Davis ably presided as toast master and the program of toasts given on subjects of keen interest added greatly to the pleasure of the occasion.

Program of Toasts
To the Seniors—Russell Adkinson.
Response—Ernest A. van.
Our Student Body President—Vier Robinson.

Our Stars—Byron Christenson.
Our Runners—Claire McPhee.

Our Auditorium—Ralph Chase.
Whitner Bound—Isabel Anderson.

informal Dinner Party.
A merry little dinner party was enjoyed last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George S. Briggs, who very informally entertained a few guests.

Clusters of beautiful yellow Columbine graced the prettily appointed dinner table, where covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Hatzfeld, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Scott, Mr. and Mrs. O. K. Forgy and Mr. and Mrs. Briggs.

Whist was the after dinner diversion, at which Mrs. Scott and Mr. Hatzfeld won high score, consoling prizes going to Mrs. Hatzfeld and Mr. Forgy.

Birthday Celebration

At about 8:15 Thursday evening, eighteen men gathered in front of A. C. Fletcher's home at Olive, and while he was away telephoning, they walked in and surprised him. They had come at Mrs. Fletcher's request to celebrate her husband's birthday, the affair being in the form of a Dutch stag party.

After Mr. Fletcher had recovered from his surprise, the company gathered around the tables for a game of whist. Al Hesick was the fortunate one, winning a stein, and Mr. White received the consolation, a Dutch picture.

At the close of the game, all adjourned to the dining room, where a real Dutch lunch was served by two young men in Dutch costume. A large birthday cake being the feature of the appetizing repast.

Cards marked the places for the following gentlemen: Messrs. MacGillivray and Herkelhart of Corona, Lucy and Brown of Placentia, Danner and Hesick of Orange and Messrs. Tetzlaff, D. Heitschman, J. Dush, Conger, Ross, Barnes, Luetje, White, Cole, Pavan, Linnarty, Myers and Fletcher of Olive.

NOTE OF THANKS

President of P.-T. Federation Praises Spirit of Hearty Co-operation

Editor Register Dear Sir:
I would love to thank, personally every one who responded so beautifully to the call and made the teacher's outing the royal success it was. This would be a tremendous task. Through your courtesy may I not say that when it comes to free and wholeheartedness the people of Santa Ana cannot be excelled any place in America. The fact that twelve autos, more than necessary were provided to convey the teachers to the park, is ample proof of this statement.

It is a simple enough task to outline or plan a thing, but it is a different undertaking to put plans into execution.
Therefore, let no thought be given the originator of the scheme which could never have been carried out had not the hearty co-operation of scores of citizens made it a reality.

Thanking every individual who so kindly assisted in Thursday's treat I am respectfully,
ESTELLE L. McELREE,
Pres. S. A. P. T. F.

Happy Hours Club

A most enjoyable and delightful afternoon was spent yesterday when Mrs. J. E. Tillotson and Mrs. G. H. Bent entertained the "Happy Hour" club. The guests were invited to meet at the home of Mrs. Tillotson and the hours were spent happily by conversation interspersed with music. Mrs. Sauer, Mrs. Reif and Miss Moerser delighting the club with sweet song and Mrs. Kays and Miss Wild with instrumental solos.

A guessing game was enjoyed which consisted of 20 exhibits displayed and numbered on the dining table, each exhibit representing some musical term.

The company were then invited over to Mrs. Bent's home going through Birch Park on the way where they were served with cooling refreshments followed by after-dinner mints in the shape of conundrums which were designed to fit the need of each member. This diversion occasioned much merriment.

The invited guests were Miss Wild, Miss Moerser, Miss Bell, Miss Wiesman, Miss Brace, Miss Powers, Miss Blodgett, Miss Willis, Miss Myers, Miss Fitz, Miss Baker, Miss Giffin, Mrs. L. Tillotson, Mrs. Warner, Mrs. Clark, Mrs. Billingsley, Mrs. Berry, Mrs. Brannon, Mrs. Rief, Mrs. Galbraith, Mrs. Graham, Mrs. Sutton, Mrs. Kays, Mrs. Sauer, Mrs. Baker, Mrs. Fitz, and Mrs. Meyers.

Third Economics Picnic

The third Household Economics section of the Elbell club held its last meeting in Birch Park yesterday afternoon, nineteen ladies responding to roll call.

After a short business session, the officers who served so faithfully during the past year were re-elected: President—Mrs. D. L. Anderson.
Vice-president—Mrs. W. L. Leiby.
Secretary-treasurer—Mrs. E. H. Prince.

The rest of the afternoon was spent with fancy work and social chat until at 6 o'clock the husbands arrived to enjoy the bountiful picnic supper.

Enjoyable Waffle Bake

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Rurup, of Orange, entertained a few friends with a "waffle bake" last evening, the jolly affair complimenting Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Rurup, who leave soon for Arizona.

Meat patties, cake and coffee were enjoyed in addition to the inexhaustible supply of delicious waffles and the evening closed with many compliments for the hostess and the expression of deep regret on the departure of the popular guests of honor.

Senior Class Play

The senior class play, "All of a Sudden Peggy," which will be given next Wednesday evening, promises to be a brilliant event. The cast has been carefully chosen, so that the young actors are well fitted to their respective roles. The costumes are to be a striking feature, as most of them have been secured from leading Los Angeles costumers.

"All of a Sudden Peggy" as a play, is wholesome, and one which bristles with clever situations.

SPLENDID PROGRAM

Intermediate School Scene of Inspiring Commencement Exercises

The Assembly Hall of the Intermediate school was filled last evening with proud parents, well-wishing friends and happy school-mates, who greatly enjoyed the commencement exercises of the record-breaking list of 108 I. H. S. graduates, the largest class of grammar school students who ever finished this course together.

Professor J. A. Cranston, who is ever at hand with unfailing interest at such occasions, presided over the program, and following an excellent number given by the I. H. S. orchestra, the pretty little maidens of the girls' glee club, dressed in spotless white middie spits with Yale blue ties, sweetly sang "O'er the Waters Gliding," by Offenbach; "Questions," by Meredith, and "Welcome Pretty Primrose," by Pinsky.

Rev. J. G. Kennedy gave an earnest invocation, after which Mr. Cranston introduced the man whose service is so indispensable to the Santa Ana schools, who is ever willing, ever efficient and ever pleasing, Prof. Harry Garstang, whose beautiful Irish ballads, "Mavourneen" and "Mother McCrea" were highly appreciated.

"Paying the Price," which was the subject chosen by Rev. J. G. Kennedy of the United Presbyterian church, was full of splendid thoughts and good advice to the young people. He emphasized the fact of the earnest consecration, sacrifices and labor and self-discipline that must be paid for genuine success and admonished the builders just commencing to lay the foundation of their future career, not to economize on their foundation material, with the same spirit as the little boy who, when asked for his contribution to the family's economy, pledged to do his share by "cutting out the soap."

Songs by the boys' glee club were sung with spirit, and this splendid chorus of boy volunteers was complimented by Superintendent Cranston, who spoke of this feature being "as rare as a day in June."

Professor W. C. Roberts, who has so faithfully watched over the work and play of the young people, presented their diplomas with deep feeling, expressing his keen pleasure in having this final part in their intermediate school life and encouraging them to higher education.

Superintendent Cranston in a few appropriate remarks welcomed the graduating class heartily into the high school and bade them make it a 100 per cent enrollment next year.

After several thrilling songs, paying tribute to the school so well beloved, the program closed with a rousing school yell inspired by the enthusiastic leader, Vincent Niehaus.

Jolly Outing at Balboa

The C. E. S. L. Club held a jolly outing yesterday at Balboa Beach, driving down, in machines, early in the morning.

The day was ideal for surf bathing and the company was soon enjoying this delightful sport which gave them keen appetites for the sumptuous picnic lunch, spread in the pavilion at noon time.

In the afternoon a launch ride on Newport Bay was greatly enjoyed.

Mrs. Lela Bowditch, Mrs. Chris McNeil, Mrs. J. C. Thomas, and Miss Mena Miller, the latter a Kansas friend of Miss McNeil, were guests of the club, others present being Mrs. Ernest Rief, Los Angeles, Mrs. George Napoleon, Clyde Deardorff, Ralph E. Williams, F. S. Davis, Leora Harris; Misses Melene McNeil and Alma Cox.

Informal Evening

The Philathea class of the First Congregational church was delightfully entertained last evening at the home of their class teacher, Mrs. P. Schrock.

The affair complimented Miss Irene Peckham, a popular member who leaves next week for her Dakota home, leaves next week for her Dakota home, and Mabel Mansur, who have arrived from college for their summer vacation.

Informality was the pleasant keynote of the social evening, which closed with the serving of cooling refreshments.
The young ladies were delighted with this opportunity of meeting Mrs. Schrock's house guest, Miss Myrtle De Voe, of Deepark, Wash., other members of the congenial company including Misses Irene Peckham, Mabel and Mildred Mansur, Margaret Roy, Helen Wells, Clara Wieseman, Helen Starr, Minnie Koplin, Fannie, Emma and Minnie Hasty, Berdina Henry, and the hostess, Mrs. Schrock.

Farewell Party

Little Alice and Malinda Miller entertained some of their friends Friday afternoon at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Miller, 1505 North Broadway, this being a double birthday and farewell party, as the Millers will spend the summer in the east.

Mrs. Miller chose a red and white color scheme, decorating with white roses in the dining room and carnations in the living room.
The afternoon was spent in playing

Dear Cousin Sue: Yesterday was the days of days! George has been suddenly ordered to Buenos Aires; we sail tomorrow. As soon as he got the news we hurried down to the city clerk's office for the license.

"We won't have time for a big wedding," said he, "so let's be married right here."

"What, now?" I exclaimed.

In a moment he had found an alderman and in another moment I was going through the ceremony in a daze, and now I am a bride without the gorgeous wedding I planned. But I am not a bride without the wedding gown. Here it is, the gown that waited at home while the bride eloped. Because there'll be no grand wedding now, I send you the picture of it which I had taken today.

It is a gown after my own heart, because it is so airy, yet has such wedding dignity! The under dress is traditional satin in bridal white—chiffon, to be sure, the stuff that clings so lovingly to the bride of today, instead of standing in set folds, a la grandmother. A train? Indeed, it's gently weighted with crystal bead embroidery. A train's part of wedding finery, though many frocks don't have 'em this year. The overdress is a dream. The low waist line and the full sleeves are very new and become games on the lawn and at a late hour delicious home-made cake and ice cream were served, each dish bearing a tiny red, white and blue flag. After all had eaten to their hearts' content, they whiled away the remaining hours by singing patriotic songs until time for departure, when they bade farewell to Alice and Malinda, wishing them many more happy birthdays and a pleasant time on their journey.

Mrs. Miller was assisted in entertaining the children by Mrs. W. M. Jackson and Grandma Miller. Those joining in the merry party besides Alice and Malinda were Annie Liggett, Velma Awe, Susie Temple, Lucille Ball, Gwendolyn Tubbs, Gladys Newman, Margaret Wood, Helen Smiley, Aural Bowers, Ruby Wilbur, Lenora Riggs, Elizabeth Wright, Lillie Wallace, Cynthia Kirvin, Thelma Patton, Marjorie Wheaton, Ruth Newman, Isabel Wood, Doris Dickey, Margaret Hutchins, Kathrine Kirvin, Josephine Roy and tiny Etta Marie Jackson, who was the attraction of the afternoon.

Sixth Economics Luncheon

The Sixth Household Economics Section closed this year's meetings with a twenty-cent luncheon, held at the home of Mrs. N. A. Beals at 821 Stafford street.

The beautiful lawn of the Beals home was utilized for this pleasant affair, tables being spread beneath the shady arbor, which was profusely decorated with poppies and yellow daisies.

A bouquet of these pretty flowers centered each small table, marked by exquisite hand-tinted cards, which also bore the menu, which proved that the ladies have learned a valuable lesson in economics in being able to provide such a sumptuous spread at so small an expense.

Mrs. Jayne was chairman of the committee, her assistants being Mesdames Hill, Norton O'Brien and Miss Lida Crookshank.

The delicious repast consisted of cantaloupe, pressed chicken, wax beans, creamed new potatoes, carrot pickles, Southern rolls, pineapple salad, bread fingers, apricot ice cream, sunshine cake, almonds and coffee.

After the business session Mrs. A. M. Garver, the newly-elected leader of this section, read next year's interesting program, thus concluding the pleasant meetings of the year.

HAYSTACK BURNS

At 12:20 o'clock last night it was reported by Elmer L. Bowers, 116 East Washington Avenue, to police headquarters that a haystack on a lot at the corner of Washington and Spurgeon streets had caught fire and that Bowers had extinguished the blaze. Officers Ryan and Smithwick made an investigation but were unable to find anyone near the scene of the fire.

STANDARD SAYS NO AMENDED COMPLAINT

May Take Appeal In Action For Recovery of Last Year Tax Money

District Attorney West has received a letter from the Standard Oil Company, stating that the company would not file an amended complaint in the action brought by the oil company in an attempt to recover $25,000 of the money paid by the company to County Assessor Sleeper last year.

Whether or not that means that the Standard is going to cease its fight for the money is not known here. The company may allow judgment to go against it upon failure to amend, and appeal to the upper courts upon the sustaining of the demurrer.

Sleeper slipped on a healthy assessment on the Standard's property last year. The company thought it ought to get off for about ten per cent of the amount it had to pay.

Judgment on Note. Today default judgment was given H. T. Anderson against H. A. Ashton for $326.86. Suit was on a note.

Charge Insanity. A complaint charging Marie Reyes of Talbert with insanity was sworn to today. The woman was arrested first on a peace disturbance charge. She declared that she could not be freed from a spell that she said Mrs. Valenzuela of Talbert had cast upon her until she had spilled some of Mrs. Valenzuela's blood. The hearing on the insanity charge will be held Monday.

Appraisers Named. J. N. Anderson of Santa Ana and E. E. Balcom and R. T. Davies of Fullerton have been appointed to appraise the estate of E. R. Amerigo.

Soon Over With. A complaint was filed, an answer put in, the case tried and judgment entered, all in about twenty minutes this morning. F. E. Wiscup was the plaintiff and John C. and Samuel J. Threese as executors of the will of Carolina B. Pittman were the defendants. Suit was to enforce a contract concerning an oil lease, and the case was taken to court in order to secure a court order settling the status of the lease.

Ready for Appeal. Yesterday Judge West denied a new trial of the contest of the will of Mrs. Gertrude Finley Pusey, under which her property, worth $25,000, goes to Mrs. Pusey's relatives here and in Los Angeles. The contest was entered by Pusey. Under the ruling of Judge West, Pusey will get no part of the estate. Pusey's attorneys made a motion for a new trial, and it was denied. The next step will be to take an appeal.

Judgments Entered. Yesterday Judge Thomas gave an interlocutory decree of divorce to Stella Rios Arce against Ygnacio Arce.

Judgment for $538 was entered in favor of the Brown-Dauser Company against C. E. McFadden. The defendant did not contest.

The First National Bank of Fullerton got default judgment for $992.85 against Herbert Dyer, who is in San Quentin serving a sentence of twenty-five years for mistreatment of his stepdaughter. The bank sued on a note. Head & Marks represented the plaintiff in this action, and the plaintiff in the Brown-Dauser Company's suit.

Under Advisement. Judge West took under advisement the contest of the will of Jane Boylan Cook. This case has several unusual features. The will, if it is a will, consisted of a letter written to Mrs. Cook's brother, Attorney Eden for the widow, who is the contestant, declared the letter is not a will because it was written with instructions to be followed only in case of death by a contemplated operation. Death was not due to the operation.

Recorder's Office. There has been recorded an agreement of sale by J. N. Anderson to Viola B. Kerr for $13,687.75. The property is real property.

J. A. Holland has recorded a declaration of homestead upon lot 12, block C, Fifth street tract, value $1800.

Set for Answer. This morning Judge West appointed F. C. Drumm of Orange to defend Joseph Grant, Jr., charged with assault with a deadly weapon with intent to kill. Grant is to plead on June 22.

Raise Capitalization. Today there was filed here notice of the raise of the capital stock of the La Habra Citrus Association from $24,000 to $90,000.

Marriage License. John Schwendeman, 26, and Kathryn Spencer, 23, both of Orange. Nieves Arriola, 33, and Emilia Jzuna, 25, both of La Habra.

OPINIONS AS TO RANCH VALUE DIFFER

Judge Hearing Action to Condemn Right-of-way In Santa Ana Canyon

According to the testimony taken in the condemnation suit brought by Riverside County against Thomas J. Scully, who has a ranch in the Santa Ana canyon just above the Orange County line, the ranch might be worth anything from $60 to $200 an acre.

Orange County is interested in this case for the reason that the suit is to secure a right of way for building a paved road in Riverside County to join the improved Santa Ana canyon road in this county. Further improvement work in the canyon is held back pending the securing of a right of way.

That the damage that would be done to the Scully tract by the building of the proposed new county highway across it would total between $5,000 and $6,000 was the statement made by H. Clay Kellogg, civil engineer of Santa Ana on the witness stand. Kellogg said that he had been employed by Scully to work out an irrigation system for the Scully tract.

He stated that the land which it was proposed to irrigate, was good for citrus trees. It consisted of detritus carried down from the mountains which were rich in gypsum and lime deposits. He stated that the proposed new course of the highway crossing the ranch would make necessary an entirely separate irrigation pipe line and that the cost of this new pipe line, which would not be necessary if the location of the road across the Scully ranch is retained, as at present, would be $2,358.90. The total damage to the tract by the new location of the highway he estimated as between $5,000 and $6,000. He stated that the new road would not in any way benefit the Scully land.

Mayor Oscar Ford of Riverside gave his testimony for the county as to the feasibility of the route proposed to be condemned as compared with the present route. Mayor Ford gave his testimony as a contractor of experience. He said the road the county highway commissioners propose is more feasible than the road in its present location as less dirt would have to be removed in the building. Mayor Ford estimated that if the road was graded in its present location, which goes over the objectionable hill instead of around it, 42,000 yards of dirt would have to be removed at a cost of 50 cents a yard.

There is a wide divergence in the opinion of experts as to the value of unirrigated lands in the Santa Ana canyon. Thomas J. Scully, defendant, declared in court in Riverside this week that the new road if built will increase his land $200 an acre and that the 65 acres of land taken would be worth more than that.

As opposed to the views of Scully comes a considerable array of real estate and business men who figure that the Scully lands are worth from $60 to $100 an acre and that circumjacent acreage will be materially benefited by the new road.

Some amusement was created when

District Attorney Evans asked the defendant if he did not know that his land was assessed for only $4 an acre. Scully looked up, he surprised and declared that he did not know how much the land was assessed as he had not seen an assessor for six or eight years.

Judge Densmore suggested that the county might be a gainer if the assessor was called in to hear the evidence in the case.

The court denied the motion of Attorney Freeman, who sought to have the action dismissed on jurisdictional grounds. Taking of evidence as to the value of the land sought to be condemned for a county highway was then begun. The several witnesses for the county estimated the value at between $60 and $100. Witnesses for the county were T. C. Jameson, A. B. McConnell, W. C. Barth, C. H. Lewis, S. C. Evans, J. T. Jarvis and G. M. Pearson.

Scully on taking the stand said the property in question had been in the possession of his family for several generations and until recent years had been used for stock and grain raising. Now it was proposed to put water on the land and plant it to trees. Scully declared that the construction of the road through the property would prevent successful irrigation.

Riverside county wants to condemn about 10 acres across the Scully property, the strip paralleling the present road but making a detour of a hill in order to avoid a heavy grade. It is understood that Riverside county officials estimated that the land to be condemned should be bought for approximately $1,000.

ANAHEIM IS PROUD OF BIG NEW LIGHTS

Anaheim Plain Dealer—Celebration of the completion of Anaheim's ornamental street lighting system—the year—was held Thursday night. The features of the blowout were a big parade through the streets of the lighting zone, in which the Anaheim Band, a band of horribles and many citizens participated, followed by a street dance in a roped-off enclosure on South Claudia street.

The streets were lined with humanity, assembled to view the handsome cluster lights and the attending festivities of the celebration. "Handsome," "beautiful," "artistic," were the expressions heard on all sides in commenting on one of the finest ornamental street lighting systems in the Southland.

Anaheim's new lighting system extends from Clementine to Philadelphia on Center street and on Los Angeles street it extends from Cypress to Broadway. Within the zone there are 64 posts of highly ornamental design. The posts are 14 feet high, and are surmounted with a cluster of five globes. The center light which is covered with a large white globe, is of 125 candle power, while the four outer lights have 64 candle power each. The posts have been placed at approximately 100 feet apart, on both sides of the streets within the zones, and as there is 384 candle power for each post, the streets are much better lighted than ever before.

SMOKES FIVE-FOOT CIGAR EVERY DAY

CHICAGO, June 19.—Henry R. Kraybill is the champion smoker at the University of Chicago. He will smoke the equivalent of a cigar five feet long. Every day he will smoke sixty stogies, and he will burn them down to an inch of the butt.

It is for his own pleasure that Kraybill is performing this marathon act. He is making a scientific experiment, testing the burning qualities of tobacco treated with different kinds of fertilizer while growing. Kraybill is a graduate of the Pennsylvania State Agricultural College.

"Ill effects? Not a bit," said he today. "You see, I eat a lot of apples and drink plenty of strong black coffee while making the experiments."

'SWAP WIVES LIKE HORSES,' SAYS JUDGE

NEW YORK, June 19.—Swapping wives and husbands in this country has become as common as swapping horses, declared Supreme Court Justice Frederick E. Crane, sitting in the undefended divorce cases court in Brooklyn. In reserving decision on a case of a woman who was suing for an annulment of marriage on the ground that her husband was already married, Justice Crane remarked: "If we want polygamy like the Mormons in Utah, don't we come out bravely and establish it here?"

"Marriage is the cheapest thing under our law. Marry one day and then come back in court the following morning and get divorced. Swapping wives and husbands has become as common as swapping horses in our country."

KEY ROUTE FERRY IN ACCIDENT; NEAR PANIC

SAN FRANCISCO, June 19.—The Key Route ferry boat Fernwood broke her rudder today and almost smashed into the Sacramento river steamer Apache at the entrance to the ferry slip. Hundreds of commuters were thrown into a near panic.

FORMER SANTA ANAN MOVES TO ANAHEIM

Anaheim Plain Dealer: Harry E. Carter, a former well-known Orange county boy, but for some years past engaged in business in Corona, has moved to the city and will shortly become identified with the business life of the city.

Carter has leased the middle store room of the new Fisher building and announces that he will occupy the quarters with a stock of clothing and gents' furnishings. He will also conduct a tailoring establishment in connection, he being a practical tailor of many years' experience. Before moving to Corona, Carter was in the tailoring business in Santa Ana.

Mrs. Carter is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Kennedy of this city, and is well known here.

"COME to Pahvant Valley—you California farmers!"

S. H. THOMPSON.

Western Securities Co., 711 Hollingsworth Bldg., Los Angeles, Cal.

Gentlemen: I have 120 acres of land at Delta, Pahvant Valley, in what I believe to be one of the finest farming sections in the West. I have 35 acres in alfalfa and I intend to plant about 40 acres more. I was formerly a fruit grower near Covina, California, but I want to say that this is one of the best money-making sections on the map. It is a wonderfully productive alfalfa country, and I positively believe it is the best sugar beet section in the United States.

I was in Southern California 10 years and I certainly was prepared to appreciate low-priced land and water. I have raised the finest type of vegetables of all kinds up here. The soil is deep, rich and productive, the alfalfa hay grown here is far superior to that raised anywhere in the Southwest. This country has a great future. I would like to see many dissatisfied Californians come up here where there are real opportunities to make good. In closing, I want to say that I raised 20 tons of sugar beets to the acre, with very little care and attention.

(Signed) S. H. THOMPSON.

State of Utah, County of Millard—ss.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 19th day of December, 1914.

A. M. McPHERSON, Notary Public.

My commission expires Nov. 9, 1918.

Pahvant Valley is on the main line of the Salt Lake Railroad in southwestern Utah—under $1,000,000 irrigation system. Estimated annual cost of maintenance from 40 to 50 cents per acre $70 per acre for Land and Perpetual (gravity) Water Right. $25 An Acre Down. Balance in 10 Years.

Southern California ranchers are visiting, studying, investigating and buying Pahvant Valley lands every week! That this land with perpetual gravity water right stands the most exacting demands of seasoned ranchers is evidenced by the sales almost on sight.

This land actually sells itself to men who know good land—who instantly recognize real money-making farming conditions. Experienced farmers don't have to be urged to buy this kind of soil and water—at $70 per acre. They see with their own eyes the tangible evidence upon which this land has established its reputation. They talk with settlers from nearly all of the Western states, who agree that the last big land and water "bargain opportunity" is in Pahvant Valley.

Pack your grip right now and arrange to go on our next excursion. Go now—right in the heart of the growing season—and see the "proof of the pudding." Meet the farmers face to face whose glowing testimony about Pahvant Valley you have read. Ask them to prove every statement. Tell them you're "from Missouri." Obtain your own evidence.

Keen men are buying this land on the strength of its average yearly crop-producing power—on last year's record and those of the years before—on what it will do this year and every year with unfailing regularity. Don't delay—don't wait until the last acre under this wonderful $1,000,000 irrigation system is sold. Go now! You'll enjoy reading our new illustrated booklet, which will be mailed upon request.

TUSTIN WOMEN HOLD REGULAR MISSIONARY MEETING

The regular monthly meeting of the Women's Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church was held Thursday afternoon at the church.

The interesting subject of the Chinese, Japanese and Koreans in our country was the theme for discussion and was in charge of Mrs. Charles Bowman and Mrs. V. V. Tubbs.

Miss Minnie C. Childs was asked to conduct the devotional exercises, reading the scripture lesson beginning: "Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels and have not charity—" and was followed by short prayers. Miss Childs gave a short talk on "The Stranger Within Our Gates."

Mrs. W. W. Anderson of Santa Ana was present at the meeting. During her recent trip to the San Francisco Exposition she visited the Chinese girls' school in that city conducted by Miss Cameron. She gave a very interesting description of the school, the situation and arrangement of the different departments and the children there.

There are seventy-five girls in the school who have been rescued from lives of degradation and slavery. Miss Anderson also read a letter from Miss Grace Rowley about her work at Weihien, China.

About Christmas time the Tustin Presbyterian Sunday School children collected a large number of picture cards and sent them to Miss Rowley. The picture cards which are thrown away here are sometimes a great help to the missionaries. The little Chinese children prize them very highly and will work very hard to get them.

Mrs. Bowman called attention to the Japanese school in Santa Ana and Mrs. Utt read an interesting article on the Koreans.

Information from the foreign field was given by Miss Preble Drake, who was a delegate sent by the Tustin society to the last meeting of the Presbyterian in Los Angeles and her report was full of interesting incidents of the work of the missionaries. The usual reports of secretary and treasurer with responses to the roll call were varied with missionary songs.

After a beautiful piano piece by Miss Gertrude Utt the meeting adjourned for a social hour, during which punch and dainty cakes were served by the hostesses assisted by Miss Tubbs and Miss Utt.

TUSTIN WOMAN IS BACK FROM W. C. T. U. MEET AT PASADENA

Mrs. L. A. Cock of Tustin was one of the four Orange County W. C. T. U. delegates who went from the convention at Pasadena last Friday to the San Diego fair.

There were 150 members of the convention who went down on a special train and four of them were from Orange County. They were met at the depot by a committee, taken to the hotel to dinner and then to the exposition grounds. Late in the afternoon a picnic dinner was enjoyed in Pepper Grove Park.

Saturday was spent at the Exposition until 2:30 in the afternoon.

Mrs. Cock assisted at the W. C. T. U. reception to the Governor of New York Saturday afternoon, which occurred in the blue room of the Southern California building.

TUSTIN CITIZENS IN BAND, 31 PLAYERS

A brass band is the latest wrinkle in Tustin. It is composed of thirty-one instruments played by young men as well as some older ones.

Walter Wray is the teacher and leader. Some of the players have been practicing for some time on their chosen instruments while others are just beginning. If the faithful practice is kept up twice a week as they have started out to do, it will not be long before they will be heard from with harmony.

COREOPSIS CLUB

Mrs. H. E. Matthews entertained the members of the Coreopsis club at their last meeting before a summer vacation last Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Matthews had gathered pretty bouquets of verberna and canterbury bells with carnations and ferns with which to make the rooms cheery. These congenial friends enjoyed an afternoon of pleasant chat and at the same time making headway with embroidery, crochet and tatting.

The company was favored with piano pieces by Mrs. Fenlon Matthews and a solo by Miss Jessie Matthews. They were Mrs. Ann Schwartz, Mrs. E. E. Smith, Mrs. Charles Smith, Mrs. John King, Mrs. S. M. Hart, Mrs. J. D. Howes and Mrs. Charles Lambert. Mrs. Dudley Kiser was a guest of the club.

CHILDREN'S DAY

Children's day exercises in both the Sunday schools last Sunday was an interesting time in Tustin and brought out full houses to church.

A great deal of credit is due the efficient workers whose efforts resulted in a fine program well carried out. Even the cradle rolls had their part in the entertainment. Some of those who could not talk greatly pleased the audience by coming on the stage waving their hands and smiling.

MUSICAL RECITAL BY PUPILS OF MISS LONG'S EVENTFUL

Those who were fortunate enough to be present at the musical recital by the pupils of Miss Louise Long late Saturday afternoon realized a pleasure which they felt was the crowning event of a perfect June day. Roses and lace fern lent their beauty to the room where the program was given.

Six little girls, the youngest of Miss Long's pupils, played beautiful piano selections, showing their work well done and with credit to their efficient teacher.

The unconscious grace in the performances of children when they are using their best endeavors is always pleasing to every one. The melodies brought out by their little fingers were quite charming and those who were present were of the opinion that the work couldn't have been better.

The audience had the additional pleasure of listening to several exquisite piano pieces by Miss Jewel Hickox of Santa Ana, and beautiful vocal solos by Miss Jean Johnston, formerly of Tustin, now of Ontario. Miss Johnston is a pupil of Eduardo Lebegett of Los Angeles.

Program—Part I

Message of the Flowers; In the Woodland Swing, Marjorie Cranston. Sweet Violins, Marian Stanley. The Dream Boat, Ida Thorman. Spinning Song; Pixies Asleep, Helen Stanley.

Duet with Miss Long, Mildred Paul. Sweet Fern, Nettie Ware. Pastoral (Mozart) Varium (Schumann), Miss Jewell Hickox. Vocal Solo, Miss Jean Johnston.

Part II

May Bells; Waltz, Ida Thorman. Climbing Rose, Marjorie Cranston. Duet, Misses Helen and Marian Stanley.

The Little Prince, Miss Mildred Paul. Topsy Turvy; Ballade, Nellie Ware. Barcarolle, Helen Stanley.

Vocal Solo, Miss Jean Johnston. Adante with Variations (Hayden), Miss Hickox.

The program was followed by a pleasant social time during which delicious punch and cakes were served by Miss Laura Davis and Miss Jewell Hickox of Santa Ana.

KANSAS KENSINGTON CLUB IS ENTERTAINED

A delightful day was spent Thursday by the members of the Kansas Kensington Club with Mrs. T. R. Overton in Tustin.

These ladies, who are all residents of Orange County, once neighbors and friends in Kansas, gather together once a month for a day. Each lady contributes something to the dinner and the hostess supplies those things convenient to her.

On this special occasion a birthday of one of the husbands was celebrated and the gentlemen were included in the invitation, making about twenty-seven at the dinner tables.

In each of the two pretty rooms, separated by an archway, a table was set, one in blue and the other in pink with all the decorations to blend.

By means of pretty little place cards the guests were seated at a table upon which an old-fashioned dinner was served, some of the items of the menu being a roast, string beans, new potatoes and peas, pies and cake, strawberry short cake with whipped cream.

The ladies who are members of the club are as follows: Mesdames C. C. Cozad, Edgar Runney, A. O. Cozad, H. Cozad, W. J. Cozad, Leo Fallert, Chester Kenyon, E. C. Dietrich, Chas. Halderman, Cornelia L. Shriver, of Orange, Gen. Breeding, Anna M. Hasenager, P. C. Dietrich, Miss Mae Brantigan, Edmond, Kansas, and Mrs. Frank Dietrich, Long Island, Kansas.

A letter of greetings was sent to two of their absent members, Mrs. Henry Hillyard, Hemet, Cal., and Mrs. Louis Hillyard, who is now in Utah. To each, a short letter was signed by all those present.

AT THE LOGAN HOME

A jolly crowd of young people—members of the Presbyterian Sunday school—met at the home of Miss Mabel Logan, Tuesday evening.

This was the regular monthly meeting of the Aikani class and they had as their guests the young men's class. After the regular business items were dispensed with, a chapter of "In Red Mans' Land" was enjoyed, and this was followed by a number of fun-making games.

Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served late in the evening. Miss Mabel was assisted in entertaining by her mother, Mrs. Frank Logan, and Misses Jessie Matthews, Muriel, Starlit and Gertrude Utt.

GOING TO CANAL ZONE

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Belding, daughter, Mrs. J. M. King and her son, John Belding King left Thursday morning for the Canal Zone.

They sailed on the Kroonland from Los Angeles. They will perhaps not return for about six months.

TUSTIN CAN FIND NO CLUE TO BURGLARY

No clue has yet been found to the burglary committed last Monday night when about $200 worth of goods was taken from the Tustin Triangle meat market.

The goods taken consisted of two large boxes of tea, four sacks of sugar, several cases of canned milk, coffee, about 200 pounds of lard, horse radish, honey and numerous other articles, leaving the shelves almost bare.

The window glass was broken, the window unfastened. After getting in the burglars evidently unlocked the back door and tracks very plainly indicate how they carried the goods out to a wagon on U street, came back and locked the door and left by the same window in which they came.

ROAD WORK IS NOW PROGRESSING FAST

The county supervisors were out on an inspecting tour Wednesday over the Laguna and El Toro roads to San Diego, and found them in very good condition.

EDITORIAL

ENTHUSIASM

A man must believe in a proposition with all his heart before he can become enthusiastic over it.

It has been said that "doubt is the freezer of every good intention and the fore-runner of every failure." Then a doubter can never become an enthusiast. A good intention can never be carried out by a doubting mind. Enthusiasm is not always indicated by the proclaiming of beliefs and letting people know about them, but rather a deep conviction that a certain ideal can be accomplished is the foundation of true enthusiasm.

The quiet, continued recognition of a high ideal, coupled with a determination to use every endeavor in the direction of that ideal seems to develop an alertness in discovering ways and means of accomplishing a purpose.

We have all heard many times of Cyrus Field and the Atlantic cable and how long it took him to get it laid. Doubts were in the minds of others which made the obstacles seem insurmountable, but in his own mind he never doubted the feasibility of the idea and "it was enthusiasm that laid the cable."

Those who have had this determined mind to accomplish an object have been thought by others to be beside themselves on one idea. In fact, real enthusiasm almost amounts to that sometimes.

BIRTHDAY SURPRISE IS GIVEN CLEO POH

Cleo Poh was agreeably surprised last Tuesday night by a party which had been arranged by his mother to celebrate his seventeenth birthday.

About seventeen of his young friends gathered to find a pretty pink and white color scheme throughout the rooms in decorations.

The evening was spent in merry games on the lawn and porch as well as inside, after which strawberry sherbet and pink and white cake were very much enjoyed. They were served on small tables decorated with pink carnations.

The party consisted of Misses Valeda Willard, Thelma Nordstrom, Lois Morgan, Dorothy Lindsey, Violet and Mamie Giles, Roy Morgan, Alvin Fitzgerald, Albert Ladine, Harvey Gulick, Orval Hawkins, Millard Foster, Homer Hastings, James Utt, Willet Phinney, George Matthews, Vern Maynard and Cleo Poh.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

The young friends of Miss Valeda Willard were delightfully entertained on Wednesday evening upon the occasion of her birthday.

Various amusing games made an evening of the most fun imaginable, they said. The weather was unusually warm for Tustin and a bowl of punch on a table of easy access was very refreshing.

Shasta daisies and roses were used in decorations and later in the evening brick ice cream and cake were much enjoyed.

Those who participated were Misses Hazel Bailey, Anita Preble, Lillian Martin, Lois Morgan, Thelma Nordstrom, Ada May Sharpless, Dorothy Utt, Gertrude Utt, Lee Bailey, Millard Foster, Paul Jones, James Utt, Virgil Deaver, Earl Friend, Horace Shafer, Willis Cock, Lynford Hess, E. H. Hess of Los Angeles as also a guest.

DEATH OF MRS. BRUNDAGE
S. H. Brundage and Mr. and Mrs. Gavin Baxter were called to Santa Rosa on Wednesday on account of the death of Mrs. Brundage.

Mrs. Brundage had been a sufferer from paralysis for the past year and spent part of that time here in Tustin and had tried other localities also for relief, without avail. Her death occurred Tuesday at Santa Rosa.

A TRIP EAST

A party of Tustin people left last Monday morning for a visit to their former homes in the east. Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Courier and little son, Shirley went to Minneapolis, Minn.; Miss Lida A. Turner to Omaha, Neb., and P. H. Bergquist and little daughter, Phillis to Hooper, Neb., all going on the same train.

MIDSUMMER OUTING ENJOYED BY TUSTIN LITERATURE CLUB

Every one of the members of the Tustin Literature Section were present at Orange County Park Tuesday for their annual picnic.

The happy party was taken out in automobiles early in the morning when the park is most beautiful, and every opening between the trees is inviting for rambles. Some of the party took little strolls and some found inviting seats where they could do a little fancy work and some took a trip to Hewes Park.

When they returned from their wanderings it was nearing dinner time and, as at all picnics, the luncheon in the woods was one thing much enjoyed.

Most of these ladies are students of domestic science as well as students of literature and they know how to fix luncheons to be eaten in the woods with relish.

One of their numbers was coaxed into naming some of the items of the menu as follows:

Veal loaf, baked beans, pickles, jelly, hard-boiled eggs, salad, white and brown bread, chocolate cake, sunshine cake, fruitade, coffee, blackberries, strawberries, with whipped cream, cherries, apricots, plums, bananas and candy.

Every moment of the day was enjoyed by Mrs. G. W. Hubbard, Mrs. C. F. Bennett, Mrs. Wm. Belding and little grandson, John Belding King, Mrs. D. L. McCharles, Mrs. W. L. Leiby, Mrs. C. E. Utt, Mrs. Stutsman, Miss White, Miss Preble Drake, Mrs. Harry Lewis, Mrs. J. P. Hight, Mrs. J. N. Martin and Miss Minnie C. Childs, Miss Grace Hight, Miss Van Hise, W. L. Leiby and C. E. Utt were guests.

Going out one way and returning along an entirely different route added interest to the trip.

TUSTIN Y

At the Tustin Y meeting last Friday night the attendance was not as large as usual. The meeting was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Brown at Lemon Heights. A conveyance was not secured to take them and not many were brave enough to walk. However, those who did go were well repaid for the location is a very beautiful one and they found at the end of the journey a pleasant haven of rest.

There were about fifteen present and the evening was spent in the discussion of topics of interest to the Ys, at the close of which several amusing games were played and refreshments were served by the host and hostess.

ENTERTAINED AT DINNER

Several Tustin people were among those who were entertained at dinner on Wednesday evening by Dr. and Mrs. Harry E. Zaiser in their home at the County Hospital.

They were asked by Dr. Zaiser to meet a brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Zaiser and their son, of Burlington, Iowa.

Beautiful roses adorned the center of the dining table, at which the guests were seated by means of amusing little comic place cards, each conveying a message to the holder. A five course seven o'clock dinner was served.

The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Samuel W. Nau, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Nau, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Crawford, Mr. and Mrs. Adam Zaiser, Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Leck and Chas. Boyer.

Mr. and Mrs. Zaiser are being shown the beauties of Orange County and they will visit with expositions before returning to their eastern home.

HOUSEHOLD ECONOMICS

The members of the Tustin Household Economics Section will hold their annual picnic next Wednesday under Mrs. Stanley's big walnut tree.

BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION

Albert Jones celebrated his birthday Tuesday by a fine trip with his friends, Jean and Harold Carson and Frank Matthews, to Corona Del Mar.

OFF FOR BERKELEY

Miss Louise Long, Mrs. Effie Slausser, Miss Enderle and Miss Osborne left Thursday morning for the summer school at Berkeley. They went via the steamer President from San Pedro.

Miss Long expects to study in several departments of music, and they are all looking forward to putting in a busy six weeks of study.

All Day Missionary Meeting

An all-day meeting of the Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Societies of the Tustin Advent Christian Church, will be held Tuesday, at the home of Mrs. F. L. Richardson.

FUNERAL SERVICES

The funeral of Levi Carrier was held this afternoon at Patterson and McQuilkins chapel at Long Beach.

Many Tustin citizens will remember when Mr. Carrier lived here. He was father of Mrs. A. Getty who is a former well known resident of Tustin, now living in Santa Ana. Mr. Carrier passed away Thursday night at 11:00 o'clock at his home in Long Beach.

In the Mining World

From the Los Angeles Financial News.

Shady Myrick is in town. He is the owner of some of the best gem stone mines in the country. He has the distinction of having a gem stone, Myrickite, named for him by the Geological Survey of the United States. It is his first trip from his properties since last fall. During his prospecting the past winter he discovered what is now known as the Shady Myrick mine, a gold property which is 25 miles northeast of Johannesburg in the Mesa hills. There is no other prospect within many miles and this prospect is like an isolated desert flower waiting for some one to pick it. The ore deposit is 700 feet in length and in this length there are five different ore shoots that are from two to sixteen feet thick. It is an altered porphyry and there is no schist or quartz anywhere in that section. The ore is like a sponge, is free milling and averages $7.50 per ton. There are no copper strains nor indications of lead zinc or antimony anywhere in the district. The region has been placer mined for years, the draws and sags on the hillside, but the location of the Boblett claim is where no lode prospect has been thought of investigating. The prospect is only four miles from the Trans-Pacific of the Southern Pacific railroad, with no hills between, while the nearest water is but seven miles away, but can be developed within two miles of the prospect. The geologist of the Yellow Aster property has examined the prospect and he considers it a safe property to lead. Mr. Myrick, who has prospected all over the rocky mountains and who was among the first to enter the now Goldfield camp, declares the strike not only a good one, but the deposit is similar to that in Goldfield.

Dr. Walter Harvey Weed, a geologist and mining engineer of international standing, has just finished an examination of the geological and mineralogical structure of the Tom Reed Gold Road Mining District in Arizona in relation to the prevalence therein of gold-bearing ores and the persistence of values to a great depth. Prior to his departure from the district for Jerome, Arizona, where he will examine a number of mining properties for the Clark interests, Dr. Weed stated that he was very favorably impressed with the geological and mineralogical conditions of this district. It is his opinion that valuable mines will be developed there and that their longevity will be curtailed only by the limitations of mining machinery. That is to say, the Tom Reed-Gold Road District will yield pay ore to the greatest depth at which it will be possible to mine. "The veins are remarkably persistent," said Dr. Weed, "and will, I believe, carry values irrespective of the nature of the wall rock. A dike is not an essential factor for ore deposition, and veins without dikes are just as likely to carry ore shoots as those with the big, wall-like outcrops. Many of these so-called dikes are merely zones of highly altered silicified andesite-porphry—not true igneous dikes." The itinerary of Dr. Weed included an inspection of the Tom Reed-Gold Road, United Eastern, United Western, Gold Ore, Pittsburgh Big Jim, Orion, Lexington and Black Range properties, supplemented by auto trips around the camp in general.

Within the last three months six copper producers have increased their dividends. What the number of increases will be by the end of June is problematical, but it is almost certain that four or five companies will be added to the list. A list of copper companies that have increased their dividends since Feb. 1 follows:

Company	When Paid	When Declared	Dividend
Alhambra	Mar. 5	July, 1914	10¢
Al and Hecla	May 5	Mar. 18, '15	10¢
Old Dominion	May 26	Feb. 15, '15	10¢
Oscoda	Mar. 15	July, 1914	10¢
Quincy	Mar. 2	Dec., 1914	10¢
Wolverine	Feb. 24	Oct., 1914	10¢

The Shively Mining Company, the King Solomon mine, is having a second milling this month at the Red Dog custom mill. About 50 tons of ore valued about $50 per ton have been sent to the mill for reduction. Since the first of the year the King Solomon has produced about $15,000. Every milling they have had this year has netted $250 per ton, making an average of about $70 per ton for five months.

Early this week a carload of machinery arrived in Kingman, Arizona, for the Orion Mining and Milling company, a corporation in which C. J. Rhodes, William H. Wise and other Los Angeles people are heavily interested. Twelve teams are hauling the machinery from the railroad to the mine, where a large force of mechanics is placing it upon the foundations. Other mechanics are overhauling the equipment that was included in the transfer of the property to the company about three months ago. Electricity will be the motive power. The management expects to start development work by the middle of the current month.

The Norambegua mine, in the Forest Springs section in Nevada County is being unwatered, and will be worked vigorously. This mine is owned by George Campbell of San Francisco, but it is said that Eastern capitalists will take it over under bond or purchase. It is one of the oldest mines in this district, and formerly yielded heavily. The Cassidy mine, near the famous Empire, has started up, under the management of George St. John. This project is backed by W. L. Leland of San Francisco who has large oil interests in California. It is stated that the shaft will be sunk to greater depth.

Arguments in the suit of Mrs. Stella M. de Pauw, widow of the late John Singleton and one of the famous Yellow Aster mine in Kern county, who asks that Ward Chapman, one of the executors of the Singleton estate, be removed, were concluded before Superior Judge Merle Rogers, of Ventura county, in an extra session of court in Los Angeles at midnight Wednesday night and the case taken under advisement. Judge Rogers stated that he would return a decision within a week.

The antimony mine at Wild Rose, in the Skidoo district, has been reopened and small shipments of oxide are being made to the smelter of the Merchants' Finance Company near Los Angeles. There is a large tonnage of sulphide ore, the better grade averaging 40 per cent antimony. This is treated in a six-ton reverberatory furnace about two miles from the mine.

Sonoma county magnesite is destined to be more widely famous than Italian marble or German coal-tar dyes, or Southern cotton. The magnesite mines near Guerneville will soon be ready to begin shipping this product. A railroad thirteen miles in length connects the mines with the Northwestern Pacific. This railroad is the smallest complete line in America, it is of twenty-four inch gauge.

The Alaska-Juneau Gold Mining Company has entered a protest with the Commissioner of Corporations of California against the application of the Speed River Project Inc. for permission to sell $400,000 of its common stock $100,000 preferred stock for the purpose of financing a water-power, mining and manufacturing project in Alaska.

Miami Copper Company made another low cost record in April, when it produced its metal at 84.2 cents a pound. This compares with a cost of 84.5 cents in March.

March and 9.20 cents in 1914. With electrolytic copper at around 19 cents a pound, Miami is earning a profit of about 10 1/2 cents on every pound of the metal it can produce.

Five 100-pound stamps have been added to the 10-stamp mill at the Skidoo Company. Two Deister concentrators have been installed and the enlarged plant is now in commission. Ore is coming from several points and late developments in the lower workings have, it is stated by Superintendent Cooper, been satisfactory. The Big Reef Mining Company of Phoenix, Arizona, has been incorporated with a capital stock of $1,000,000. The officers and directors are Frank L. Lower, president and director; William N. Hamaker, vice-president and director; James V. Carson, director; Charles A. Post, director; and Arthur J. Mitchell, director.

Henry Huer, one of the owners of the Mad Ox mine near Whiskey town, Shasta county, was left in charge of the mine by the other owners as watchman while it was shut down. He was given the privilege of prospecting in the mine and he had to have a pay streak and took out $400 in gold in two days.

The shipping of copper ore from the mines operated by Luke Williams in the Rough and Ready district, Nevada county, commenced this week. Williams has 600 tons of high-grade copper ore on the dump, and about as much more blocked out. He is shipping to the smelter at Seely.

Two gold mines in Calaveras county, the Pinnagin and Elgin Extension properties, have been purchased by the Carson-California Mining Company who will immediately double the capacity of the ten stamp mill and install a cyanide plant.

The oil and Metals Leasing Company is to erect a 100-ton concentrating plant at the old Silverdale Silver mine near Santa Ana and will produce zinc. Several years ago the property was worked for zinc.

A rich vein of ore has been struck at the Pacific mine, near Placerville and work is being rushed as fast as possible. A five-stamp mill on the property is grinding out twenty tons a day.

The Yellow Pine Mining Company has declared a dividend of 7 cents a share payable June 25 to stock of record June 19.

Palm Hill Mines Company of Los Angeles has levied an assessment of 5 cent per share on its stock of record June 23.

The Atlantic and Yellow Jacket mines, near Placerville, both of which have been good gold producers have been sold to Burr Evans and in turn he has given an option for their purchase to Waldo Lee Clark, a prominent mining capitalist.

The mines were operated by J. M. James. The Reorganized Booth Mining Company of Goldfield has transferred by deed to the Jumbo Extension Company, all the ore in the velvet veins which contain releases at 5 cent a pound on Jumbo Extension stock which had been impounded by the Federal Court.

The Mammoth Copper Company of Kennett is conducting an experimental farm two miles north of Redding to determine first hand what damage, if any, is done by smoke from its smelters. An acre of ground has been cut up into about two hundred plots eight feet by four feet. These plots are planted to every variety of grain and vegetables known and a daily record is kept of the progress of the various crops.

A rich strike of gold and silver ore has been made in the Randsburg district by Leonard W. and John Dragoman. From eight claims owned by them 35 pounds of ore assayed 375 ounces of silver and 19 ounces of gold to the ton, or $1,767.50. Out of fourteen samples assayed the lowest was $2,200 and the highest $32,116.23 a ton. Another sample ran $11,666.75 and a third ran $4,023.

Arizona Corporation Commission has authorized the Big Jim Gold Mining Company to sell $200 shares of stock the company having taken over property formerly owned by the Tom Reed Extension Company.

The surface plant of the California mine near Rough and Ready, Nevada County, has been destroyed by fire. The plant had just been completed preparatory to reopening the mine. The origin of the fire is unknown.

Stratford Independence mine at Cripple Creek has been sold to the Portland Gold Mining Company. The late W. S. Stratford sold the Independence to the English syndicate, which now passes its control, for $1,000,000.

The Brunswick mine has declared dividend No. 8 of six cents per share payable June 15. The company is improving the plant and erecting a modern 30 stamp mill.

An 18-inch vein of crystallized potash, the first discovered in Kern County, and which runs from $35 to $40 per ton, has been uncovered in the Amalie district. To develop a gravel claim in Fumas county the La Fayette Gravel Mining Company has been incorporated in Yuba County. The capital is $50,000.

More gold is being taken out of the sensational Little Rock mine, the Sugarman, on Bald mountain, in the district of Sonoma, Tuolumne County.

H. G. Turner, owner of manganese mines in Southern India accompanied by his associate John Russell was a Los Angeles visitor this week.

Palm Hill Mining Company has levied an assessment of five cents per share delinquent June 23.

NEEDLE OF SUCCESS

THE Camel of Extravagance has absolutely no chance of passing through the eye of the Needle of Success. EXTRAVAGANCE means WASTE, and waste is the NATURAL ENEMY OF SUCCESS. The person who spends his money immoderately, lavishly, recklessly, will naturally NEVER succeed. The secret of success is MODERATION, not excess. The money prodigal very rarely has a fatted calf killed for him. Be MODERATE with your money. GUARD it well.

ABOUT PETROLEUM

Simplex Refining Company, a subsidiary of the Shell Company of California, now operating at Martinez, has applied to the California Oil Commission for a permit to leave to issue one-half of its capital stock, the total projected issue of which is $2,000,000, to W. Meischke-Smith in exchange for the Trumbull patents for refining crude oil. This process was formerly controlled by the General Petroleum Company. This latter Company sold its interest in the Trumbull patents to the Shell Company for $1,000,000, of which $500,000 has been paid in cash. The remaining $500,000 will be paid as soon as 40 patents, or thereabouts, pending are issued.

With an authorized capital stock of $2,500,000 and a purpose to deal in oil and mineral lands The Turkey Island Oil and Gas Company has been incorporated in Phoenix, Arizona by T. M. Latham, James E. Breslin, W. C. Terry, Geo. L. Ayers and N. A. Setzer who are also the directors.

Officials of the New England Oil and Pipe Line Company of Boston are in Southern California oil fields with a view to purchase and shipment of crude oil to Boston.

Blue Diamond Oil Company of Grass Valley, with works in Coalinga, has levied an assessment of three-fourths of a cent on all oil produced in the Coalinga field. Western Union directors have decided a dividend of $1 per share for May the first disbursement since January last.

Largest Check Ever Drawn
The largest check ever written in New York City was drawn on the National City Bank Tuesday by Kuhn, Loeb & Co. It was for between $2,000,000 and $2,500,000, and was payable to the Pennsylvania Railroad Company. It represented the proceeds of the sale of the $25,000,000 Pennsylvania railroad general mortgage 4% per cent bonds, which were offered for sale by Kuhn, Loeb & Co. May 7.

Potash Injunction Sustained
The injunction granted by United States District Judge Bledsoe, of Los Angeles, restraining representatives of the California Trona Company operating on potash properties in Death Valley, claimed by E. Thompson, has been sustained by the United States Circuit Court of Appeals. Litigation over the property covers a period of years. Several clashes between armed men of the opposing factions have occurred.

NOTICE
In the Superior Court of the County of Orange, State of California, No. 7125, Dept. 1.
In the Matter of the Dissolution of Orange County Automobile League (a Corporation).
Notice is hereby given by the undersigned, Clerk of the County of Orange, and ex-officio Clerk of the Superior Court thereof:

That on the 8th day of June, 1915, by an order of the above entitled court, the application of J. E. Pearce, C. J. Drake, C. J. Drake and J. M. Pearce, petitioning for an order of said court dissolving the Orange County Automobile League, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of California, with the place where its principal business is to be transacted at the city of Santa Ana, California, be dissolved.

That any person may file objections to said application at any time before the expiration of the time of publication of this notice, which time will expire on the 8th day of July, 1915.

Dated June 8th, 1915.
W. B. WILLIAMS, Clerk of the County of Orange, and ex-officio Clerk of the Superior Court thereof.
(SEAL)
By J. M. BACKS, Deputy.

NOTICE OF BOARD OF EQUALIZATION

Notice is hereby given that the Board of Supervisors of Orange County, California, as a Board of Equalization commencing on Tuesday, July 6, 1915, and will continue in session until the Board of Equalization up to and including Monday, July 19, 1915.

By order of the Board of Supervisors of Orange County, California.
W. B. WILLIAMS, Clerk of the Board of Supervisors.

EAST NEWPORT'S
NEWS LETTER

EAST NEWPORT, June 19.—Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Covert and Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Holt of Riverside, are occupying the Covert home on Third street for a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Messerly are occupying their cottage on Juena Vista boulevard for the week, and are having some improvements made to the cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson T. Shaw and daughter, June, left the early part of the week for Los Angeles, where they will make their home. The Shaws have resided at East Newport for the past two years, and have made a wide circle of friends who regret their departure.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Owen and Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Woods, and their families, are here from Los Angeles for a week's outing, and have leased a cottage on Fourth street.

Captain and Mrs. William Cox of San Diego, are occupying their home on Lindo avenue for a time, and putting the house in order for the summer.

Richmond Graff of Lamanda Park was a visitor here one day this week, and engaged a house on Surf avenue for the months of August and September.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Sweetland of Los Angeles are occupying the Felix McDjiski home on Bay Island.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ingersoll of San Bernardino are occupying their home on Central avenue for a few days.

Mrs. S. C. Ashlin very charmingly entertained the members of the Auction Bridge Club Friday afternoon, at her home on Lindo avenue. A pleasant afternoon was spent at the game, and later, a dainty repast was served by the hostess. Mrs. Horace Little assisted Mrs. Ashlin in entertaining.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Herold and little daughter are occupying their home on Surf avenue for the month.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Griffin have returned to their home in Riverside after a week's vacation here.

TO SLEEP WELL IN SUMMER

Slight inflammation of the bronchial tubes causes a distressing cough and makes refreshing sleep impossible. Foley's Honey and Tar Compound covers raw, inflamed, irritated surfaces with a soothing, healing coating and stops that annoying tickling, relieving the racking, tired cough. Take this splendid cough medicine with you on summer trips. It is good for coughs, colds, croup, bronchial affections and la grippe coughs. Rowley Drug Co.

Dr. C. V. Billingsley, Osteopath, 402 Spurgeon Building. Both phones. Residence 152-J, Orange.

TUSTIN PERSONALS

AMBASSADOR TO ITALY
WRITES FOR FILMS

No American author has broader sympathies and a more distinctive style in which to appeal to the reading public than the southerner, Thomas Nelson Page, author of "Red Rock" and now our ambassador to Italy. Mr. Page nevertheless has deserted literature for the movies and has enriched them with a drama singularly vivid and local in appeal. This drama is a four-part Mutual Masterpicture, the latest in the now famous series, and is called "The Outcast." It takes a true artist to make what we see right under our nose intensely dramatic and appealing, and Mr. Page has succeeded in doing just this. "The Outcast" will be shown at Clune's theater on Tuesday and Wednesday of next week.

FILM FLASHES OF FACT AND FANCY

UNTIMELY DEATH

The untimely death of Elmer Booth, in an automobile accident near Los Angeles, is greatly mourned these days by his brother actors.

He created the principal role in "Stop Thief," and was immensely successful. But there is a tale of heart-break and thwarted ambition connected with the play, for while his management conceded his success, when the production reached New York they insisted on a "big name" and another actor was chosen for the part.

Louis Bennison of the Burbank Company relates that though bitterly disappointed, Booth never cherished any animosity, but afterward did a service for this self-same actor; that in fact Booth was one to whom all western actors stranded in New York went in time of need, and he never refused either a dollar or help in landing a job.

Mr. Booth was the sole support of his mother, who resides in Los Angeles.

Man From Nowhere

In "The Man From Nowhere," which comes to the Princess Monday and Tuesday, W. S. Hart, the great exponent of western roles, is featured. As usual, his wonderful personality stands out strongly throughout the picture.

To Stage Fox Hunt

Stunts continue to stud "The Diamond from the Sky," the American-continued photo-novel, now being shown at the Princess Theater. A pack of hounds, especially trained, are at the American studios, and the players will begin at once rehearsing an old-fashioned Virginia fox-hunt and steepchase through the nearby fields and woods.

During the action of the scenes there will be many narrow escapes of falling from the thoroughbred steeds and an occasional accident, in which the rider narrowly escapes being trampled to death.

Instructive Series

The success of the Paramount Travel Series has again proved the good judgment and far-sightedness of the Paramount Pictures Corporation. This public-spirited organization has given the people an opportunity to see the wonders of the little known neighboring continent.

The business man gets some idea of the kind of country and the people he would have to deal with should he branch out into South America. The layman is interested in the peculiar animals, sports, pleasures and occupations, all faithfully portrayed, beautifully photographed and colored. The traveler is taken back to the time he passed through the country and he lives again, what were very likely, the best days of his life.

New Theatrical Club

SACRAMENTO, June 19.—Articles of incorporation have been filed by an organization of actors and theatrical people to be known as the "Pals." The organization is intended solely for social and charitable purposes. Branches will be created in cities and states all over the country.

"A Fool There Was"

Following are excerpts from what the New York World said in regard to "A Fool There Was": "In a 'Fool There Was' there is much to be warmly praised.—Mr. Robert Hilliard in the leading role was capital.—Vivid story of a siren who lured to his ruin the 'fool.'—Intense and compelling in its unfolding of a somewhat grim story."

Fine Acting

Spottiswoode Aitken, as the old grandfather of the little dancer, a role played by Mae Marsh in "The Outcast," the four-part Mutual Masterpicture by Thomas Nelson Page, the southern author and present ambassador to Italy, is being everywhere congratulated on the fiery and chivalric interpretation he gives the part.

Alden-Lewis

Mary Alden and Ralph Lewis portray with rare emotion the old, old story of the ambitious lover who abandoned the girl he loved in the four-part Mutual Masterpicture, "The Outcast," which was written by Thomas Nelson Page.

"Movie" Ambassador

John B. O'Brien directed the production of the four-part Mutual Masterpicture "The Outcast." He succeeded admirably in translating into pictures all the delicacy, force and charm in this story by Thomas Nelson Page, the famous southern author appointed American ambassador to Italy by President Wilson.

Rapid Rise

In the past few weeks there has been a young lady at the Reliance and Majestic studio, whose rapid rise in parts has been very noticeable. Mae Gaston, by name, is a very studious young girl and her advancement is due to her earnest application to parts cast for in Director Joseph Belmont's last two pictures, she has portrayed prominent roles.

CLUNE'S THEATER will show "The Outcast" on Tuesday and Wednesday of next week. Thomas Nelson Page is the author of this singularly vivid drama. The play is in four parts and is one of the Mutual Masterpicture series. The firm is truly artistic in all its details.

MARY ALDEN AND RALPH LEWIS IN "THE OUTCAST" FOUR-PART MUTUAL MASTERPICTURE PRODUCED BY RELIANCE

EARTH BURIES HAMLET
IN FILM THRILLER

A mountain slide which buries a village in the debris is one of the big thrills in a chapter soon to be released, of "The Diamond from the Sky," being shown Wednesday and Thursday at the Princess theater. This exciting episode is in keeping with the many sizable sensations which make the North American $10,000 prize picture novel, the most wonderful production coming out of any motion picture studio today. W. J. Tedmarsh, in the role of "Quabba," the hunchback organ grinder, is the person who actually starts the landslide, and he is the direct occasion of the village being destroyed. George Periolat, as "Luke Lovell," gathers his band of renegades in this locality to do battle with the gypsy tribe of Hagar, foster mother of the beautiful Esther, played by Lillian Pickford. In an effort to aid Hagar and Esther, Quabba loosens a large rock which is sent tumbling down the mountain side. The turmoil in the village below delays the giving of the alarm. The rock carries with it immense quantities of earth and stones, and by degrees the surface soil of the entire mountain side is dislodged and sent rushing down. Activity to bury the town completely. To make the scene utterly realistic, artisans were kept mining and tunneling for several days, so that the earth when it slid should have all the force of a genuine avalanche.

ETERNAL CITY TO BE SEEN AT TEMPLE

Produced amid the grandeur and beauty of modern Rome, under the direction of Edwin S. Porter and Hugh Ford, the amazing photo-spectacle of "The Eternal City" marks a new era in dramatic picturization. For the first time in the history of motion pictures the Vatican Gardens, the Coliseum, St. Peter's, the Castle of St. Angelo's, and many other historic and impressive spots in the Imperial City have been used as settings for a screen production. No summary of bare facts can adequately describe the astounding power and charm of the subject. The pictorial vision of Hall Caine's thrilling romance presents the stirring incidents and climaxes, the nobility and tragedy, the elements of love and betrayal and the beautiful ideals and humanities of the original plot, with a wider range, in truer colors and with bolder strokes than were possible in the novel or play, and will therefore render the inspiring story its greatest measures of immortality. The drama is to be shown at the Temple Theater for four days beginning Thursday, June 24.

Picture of Merit

In speaking of "The House of the Lost Court," produced in five parts by the Edison Company from the novel of C. N. Williamson, released last the Paramount Program, and to be seen at the Temple Theater on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, Variety said:

"The House of the Lost Court" is a dramatic adaptation of the novel by Mrs. C. N. Williamson and as a picture tale lends itself admirably to a succession of thrills and a flow of action that makes the picture stand on its own merits.

"In a sprightly, refreshing role is Viola Dana, the child actress, who is best remembered for her work in 'The Poor Little Rich Girl' and right here one can stick a pin on the prediction that Miss Dana is going to become one of the foremost picture stars of the day if she keeps up the style of work displayed by this feature."

Marguerite Clark

The Temple Theater will present Marguerite Clark in "The Crucible" tomorrow, Sunday, for the one day only. This is a return engagement by special request. It is a play that has made this little actress a rival for the honors of Mary Pickford.

LYRIC TO SHOW A BIG VARIETY OF PLAYS

The special feature at the Lyric tonight will be the "Little Girl of the Attic," a two-part number with Helen Leslie, Olive Golden, M. K. Wilson and a big cast of Universal stars. It is a story of the civil war and will be much enjoyed. A western number "Love and Handcuffs," a drama of the hills, with Sydney Azur and Doris Pawn, together with a strong drama "A Shot in the Dark," with Ben Wilson and Dorothy Phillips; and then comes Billie Ritchie in a scream of a comedy entitled "Love and Sour Notes."

Sunday and Monday

Mary Fuller, the "Queen of the Movies," in the headline for Sunday and Monday, in a story of the underworld in three acts, entitled "The Girl Who Had a Soul," written by Elaine Sterne. A splendid offering, Frances Ford and Mina Cunard appear in a drama entitled "One Kind of a Friend," the program ending with one of those mirth-provokers "Hiram's Inheritance," with Max Asher, Gale Henry and Lillian Peacock.

Tuesday will be the big feature day in which Robert Hilliard's greatest success, "A Fool There Was," featuring Theda Bara, "As the Vampire Woman," in this five-act sensational drama. This drama is no doubt one of the biggest "ideas" ever visualized, a stirring play that hits straight and sure at one of the greatest weaknesses of mankind.

CLEVER PLAY WILL BE PUT ON BY STUDENTS

Under the able direction of Ernest Crozier Phillips of the high school faculty the Senior play will be produced next Wednesday evening at the Grand, when that popular play, "All-of-a-Sudden-Peggy," will be presented. The clever part of Peggy, most winningly played by Miss Myrtle Garner, will in itself make the production a success. Melton Hatch, in the leading role of Jimmy, proves to have marked ability. Miss Emily West, with her haughty English manner, is an ideal character, and Roy Carver, in the character of Major Phipps, most perfectly features an old broken-down English dandy.

Miss Lina Yarnell is unique in the part of Millie Keppel, with her sweet, unselfish wholesomeness. J. P. Sebastian, as Lord Crackenthorpe, an entomologist, is an interesting character of the scientist type. Mrs. O'Mara, a charming Irish woman, will gain much admiration with her keen wit and wholesome advice, cleverly portrayed by Norma Wingood.

Vern Smith, as Jack Menzies, verges on the professional, with his English accent and manners. Greba Scott, as Mrs. Colgahoun, a woman of the world, is clever. William Ashman, as Lucas and Horace Snow as the butler, are both splendid. The following is the cast:

Anthony, Lord Crackenthorpe.....
The Hon. Jimmy Keppel.....
Melton Hatch.....
Major Archie Phipps.....
Jack Menzies.....
Vern Smith Parker, footman at Hawthurst.....
Lucas, man servant at Jimmy's flat.....
William Ashman.....
Lady Crackenthorpe, Anthony's mother.....
Emily West.....
The Hon. Millicent Lina Yarnell.....
The Hon. Mrs. Colgahoun.....
Greba Scott.....
Mrs. O'Mara, widow of Prof. O'Mara, F. R. S.....
Norma Wingood Peggy, her daughter.....
Myrtle Garner.....

Cause of Smiles

"Do you know the cause of so many smiles in town the past couple of days?" asked Manager Schlesinger of the Temple Theater. "Well, if you can't guess, you can easily find out by dropping in at the Temple Theater tonight and taking a look at Hazel Dawn in 'Niobe.' It's a scream; just one big laugh after another."

—Mister Squegee

There are people who can be satisfied with little if they know their neighbors have less.

This is a poor kind of philosophy.

It is not necessary to recommend any such doctrine to those who buy Diamond Squegee Tread Tires.

They have a right to demand much, no matter how little their neighbors get out of other tires.

Unbeatable mileage economy, unusual freedom from trouble on the road, and unexcelled service under all conditions are some of the things the man who uses Diamond Squegee Tread Tires has the right to expect.

And he gets them.
